

no one has the rest, it is died, because of Fabiani's is the case; it never said it.) little. After had a string of Peter's visit to centuries after Clement, Ales- is, Lettaurio, re, of S. Peter le fact, which This assertion, great wonder," added the not come to that he died in Peter command, ort of the asser- should respect that he was of such the more o the Apostles, ng information. borates his tes- (Agwin this yebrows of the went on to re- "He had in- rist which pro- lieved that the ars would be a m' of God in w, after such a stupidity of Pa- uy against the proceeded to He said that in here is no men- in the Syrian lversaries deny is not true that ake Babylon to ecent testimony ald, who main- hat by Babylon r, if it had been e named Cappa- ountries. Sent, it that it should ia, in Ponto, in s letter would ho went to Ba- establish that S. this fact is de- ld to adhere to e he began to a fact narrated

Portman, of a son.
 Beauchamp—The Countess Beauchamp, of a son and heir.
 Thursby—At Sloane-street, London, S.W., the wife of Lieu- tenant-Colonel Thursby, late Coldstream Guards, of a son.
 Inglefield—At Queen's-gate-terrace, W., London, the wife of Rear-Admiral Inglefield, C.B., F.R.S., Naval Attache at Washington, of a son.
 Mackesy—At Bengal, the wife of Major Mackesy, Bengal Staff Corps, of a daughter.
 Churchill—At Darjeeling, India, the wife of Staff Assistant Surgeon G. F. Churchill, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Tye and Needham—At the District Registrar's Office, Cashel, by John Davis White, Registrar, and subsequently at the Roman Catholic Church, Fethard, Mr. Charles Henry Tye, 6th Inniskilling Dragoons, to Margaret, daughter of Mr. John Needham, of Fethard, county Tipperary.
 Meredith and Maginnis—At Rosennalis Church, Rice Mere- dith, Esq., Reary House, Clonastee, to Miss Mary Mag- ginnis, Forge-street, Mountmellick.
 Boyes and Walker—At St. John's Church, Chester, John Frederick Boyes, Esq., A.B., M.B., Trin. Coll., Dublin, son of the late Lieut.-Colonel Boyes, of Kingstown, to Elizabeth, daughter of John Walker, Esq., Newton Bank, Chester.
 Tuson and Wallerstein—In the Lady Chapel of Hereford Cathedral, William Haviland, eldest son of the Rev. Fre- derick Edward Tuson, M.A., Hon. Canon of Bristol Ca- thedral and vicar of St. Anne's, Oldland, to Mina Blanch, eldest daughter of the late Edward Wallerstein, Esq., H.M.'s Consul-General at Costa Rica and Guatemala.
 Kidd and Boby—At Holy Trinity, Paddington, London, the Rev. John T. D. Kidd, Senior Chaplain on H.M.'s Madras Establishment, to Eliza Harriet, widow of Wm. Boby, Esq., formerly of Walton, Suffolk.
 Carter and Fearing—At Providence, Rhode Island, U.S.A., Alexander Carter, Esq., of Kenilworth, Dublin, to Kate Sedley, youngest daughter of the late William Sedley Fearing, Esq., of New York.
 Carter and Emmott—At Allygurh, N.W.P., India, Fr deric Carter, Esq., Surgeon 1st Goorcha Regiment Light In- fantry, to Agnes Jane, only daughter of the late Christo- pher Browning Emmott, Esq., M.D., of Egham, Surrey.

DEATHS.

FitzGerald—At Cliffe Hall, Yorkshire, on the 17th instant, William FitzGerald, Esq., of Adelphi, county Clare, in his 85th year.
 Mancur—On the 19th inst., at her residence, No. 7, Lorri- more-square, London, after a long and painful illness, Alice Mary, wife of E. Mancur, and eldest daughter of the late John Callanan, Esq., of Cahernarry House, county Limerick.
 Carroll—At St. Patrick's-place, Cork, Hargrave Carroll, Esq., in the 30th year of his age.
 White—Mary Ievers, youngest daughter of the late Benja- min Newport White, Esq., J.P., formerly Mayor of Cashel.
 Stoney—At Rathmines, Dublin, Ruth Selina, second daugh- ter of the Rev. Ralph Sadlier Stoney, M.A., vicar of Wrea- green, Lancashire.
 Bailey—At Apsley Lodge, Rathgar-road, Dublin, Charlotte, second daughter of William Hellier Bailey, of H.M.'s Geological Survey of Ireland.
 Gibson—At Merrion-square, North, Dublin, Wm. Gibson, Esq., Taxing Master in Chancery.
 Darcey—At Portsmouth, Edward Byrne Darcey, Esq., Navi- gating Lieutenant of H.M.S. Euphrates.
 Ravenscroft—At Fulham-place, Maida-hill, London, Pris- cilla, daughter of the late Rev. William Ravenscroft, M.A., prebendary of Rasharkin and rector of Finvey, Antrim.
 Hulbert—At Slaithwaite Parsonage, near Huddersfield, Louisa, wife of the Rev. C. A. Hulbert, jun.
 Macpherson—At Glasgow, John Duncan Macpherson, late Lieut. 2nd Dragoon Guards.

Working Gard

A SINGLE YOUNG MAN a situation as above; y nagement and care of fruit t table grower, and willing to rally useful; is a Protestant, recommended by former time please state wages. Boa Address T. D. Charleville Cork.

Coachman or

A RESPECTABLE MAN above; can drive single can be well recommended by Address E.C., Office of this Feb. 22.

Parlour Ma

A RESPECTABLE Youn Situation as Parlour V Housemaid; understan her well recommended by her last Address Office of this Paper February 22.

WANTED, a Situation as Steward, by a respect a good ploughman; understa of green crops; is a good bu kind of stock; has two workmen; can produce long charges from his late employe Please address to Patrick Ballinacally, co. Clare. Feb. 22.

WANTS a Situation, as L Lady's Maid, or w woman, a young Person dressing and dress-making, highest reference given Address M.B., care of Mr. street, Limerick. February 22.

WANTED, a Respectable Understands Book-ke to the keeping of Brewery B be Well Recommended by fo Address—A. B., Office of t February 22.

W. J. Gray