

suspension of business, and ion of Wiltshire, and a large neighbouring counties seemed way through Amesbury. As this morning pedestrians om Salisbury, and an hour or allowed them in rapid succesear. Streams of traffic have accon-hill, and at this moment impassible. The scene on the ant; the spur of the Beacon sents one black mass of living ten vehicles of every possible away to the rear 6 or 8 deep. ctators swell over the crest of sloping ground below. Down he centre near the hill is the e the staff have assembled to e Duke of Cambridge and the
 On either side also is a huge of carriages and spectators on morning the time has been al good coursing matches, the es being killed. It was under oered somewhat by a slight mmer clouds, that the review ke of Cambridge, accompanied Vales, arrived on the ground and a royal salute was fired.
 oops were then on the ground, ard being flown at the saluttheir positions—the Guards in treme right, the infantry in the front, the cavalry in udrons to the rear, and e front of the right centre;
 e accompanied by the foreign ree staff, rode along the lines and ection. A considerable time but at length the patience of ls of spectators was rewarded e front to the extreme left on ntry volunteers and militia. A ras then made by the cavalry in nto view some further artillery cealed behind the rising ground ese were followed by some re-
 As to the more detailed move-w preparatory to the march be well discerned from the en-aluting point, from whence a fair

King's) Regt., of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

- Blunt and Crosbie—At Ballyheigue Church, county Kerry, the Rev. William Octavius Blunt, vicar of Muncaster, to Alice, daughter of the late Major Pierce Crosbie, of Ballyheigue Castle.
- Greenwood and Fetherston—At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, the Rev. Henry Greenwood, Lincolnshire, to Henrietta Maria, third daughter of the late Rev. Sir Thos. Francis Fetherston, Bart.
- Bleakley and Cottingham—At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, John T. Bleakley, A.B., eldest son of the Rev. David Bleakley, incumbent of Benowen, co. Westmeath, to Maria, fifth daughter of James Courtney Cottingham, Esq., late of Summerville, county Cavan.
- Lynch and White—At the Catholic University, Dublin, David, eldest son of the Hon. Judge Lynch, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Francis White, Esq.
- Macaulay and Leech—At the Baptist Chapel, Lower Abbey-street, Dublin, Henry Anderson Macaulay, Esq., of Strabane, to Rebecca Ophelia, eldest daughter of Chas. Leech, Esq., Q.C., North Great George's-street, Dublin.
- Harcourt and Bruce—At St. Margaret's, Mountinash, Glamorganshire, Augustus G. Vernon Harcourt, Esq., eldest son of Admiral Vernon Harcourt, to Rachel Mary, second daughter of the Right Hon. H. A. Bruce, M.P.
- Gunning and Jackson—At Rochdale, James Davis, Assist.-Surgeon 51st (King's Own) Light Infantry, and late of the Royal Scots Regt., third son of John Gunning, Esq., of Stranorlar, co. Donegal, to Anna Rebecca, eldest daughter of Sidney V. Jackson, Esq., Primrose Hill, Ballina, co. Mayo.

DEATHS.

- Morgan—On the 11th inst., at 36, Catherine-street, Rosabelle (a most interesting and talented child), daughter of the late Captain William Morgan, of this city, aged 12 years and 5 months.
- Cox—At Ballinamona, in this county, the residence of his father, Robert Mausell Cox, second son of Robert Cox, aged six years—a child of much promise and intelligence.
- Campbell—At Lansdowne-road, Dublin, Jane, the beloved wife of the Rev. Andrew Campbell, D.D.
- Cosby—At Pembroke-road, Dublin, Anne Beresford, wife of J. W. H. Cosby, Esq., and daughter of the Right Hon. and Most Rev. Edward Stopford, late Lord Bishop of Meath.
- Greer—At his residence, Omagh, James Greer, Esq., in his 97th year.
- Miley—At Commonstown, co. Kildare, Lake Miley, Esq.
- Pelly—At Harcourt-street, Dublin, the infant son of Cornelius Pelly, Esq.
- Taylor—At Greystone Lodge, Leamington, aged 72, Albinia Hetter Shaw Taylor, widow of the late Capt. Shaw Taylor, and daughter of the late General Sir John Taylor, K.C.B., of Castle Taylor, county Galway.
- Collier—At Ryder-street, St. James's, London, Admiral H. T. B. Collier.
- Shuttleworth—At Dawson-place, Bayswater, Jane, wife of Captain Henry Shuttleworth.
- Napier—Drowned off Fowey, Lieut. Charles Elers Napier, H.M.S. Implacable, only son of the late Lieut.-General Elers Napier, Colonel 46th Regt., aged 26 years.