

ed from amongst
 after his illness,
 spared amongst
 from everything and a saying I reis of a good man.
 He said, "The body, I will be ing earthly as if upiter." What ere in the planet
 it appear but a his is another how soon we
 is to be prepared.
 d not arrived at which he might rom all he loved.
 an, and there are who, from their fore him. To be er pray with the ber our days that dom." We cane some here who Therefore let us thought of the
 there is one very learn—That the option which He ood are the only an become reconed for eternity."
 arn from the hist earthly honours omething higher.
 of everlasting life
 sitting with him a portion of the g God's love to Christ. I read
 Christ reconciling
 g their trespasses blessedness which njoys, that their
 is precious blood.
 e and said, "Sir feeling, and that ce in your soul."
 wife, who I was s reply. He said and looking stea-
 was not ashamed
 ence of his wife,
 my Lord and Sa-for me." Thank med or afraid to

Pickering—At Clonsilla, county Dublin, the wife of Samuel Pickering, Esq., of a son.
 Strathmore—At Queen's-gate-gardens, London, the Countess Strathmore, of a daughter.
 Cooper—At Colchester, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel Arthur Cooper, C.B., 33rd Regiment, of a son.
 Ready—At The Sycamores, Ballsalla, Isle of Man, the wife of Captain J. T. Ready, 66th Regiment, of a son.
 Elliot—At Ovington-gardens, London, S.W., the Hon. Mrs.
 Charles Elliot, of a son.
 Hunt—At Odell Rectory, Bedford, the wife of the Rev.
 William C. Hunt, of a daughter.
 Gee—At East Coker Vicarage, the wife of the Rev. William Gee, of a son.
 Stokes—At the School House, Mussoorie, N.W.P., India, the wife of the Rev. A. Stokes, M.A., head master, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Farran and Baker—July 18, at Santry Church, William Farran, of Rathbranagan, county Limerick, Esq., to Emmeline Sarah, daughter of the late Thomas Baker, of Courtlough, county Dublin, Esq., J.P.
 Jones and Sylvanni—At SS. Peter and Paul's Church, Cork, Howard Jones, Esq., of H.M.'s Civil Service, to Mary Clare, third daughter of John M. Sylvanni, Esq., Warren's-place, Cork.
 Dickson and Manning—At Castlemacadam Church, Andrew Dickson, Esq., of Indianapolis, Ind., U.S.A., to Josephine Mary Ann, youngest daughter of George Manning, Esq., Ovoca, county Wicklow.
 Love and Kough—At Morden, Surrey, Gilbert Love, Esq., of Wimbledon, to Emily, youngest daughter of the late Edward Kough, Esq., J.P., of New Ross, co. Wexford.
 Sanders and Doriet—At St. Mary's Church, Atherstone, the Rev. S. J. W. Sanders, M.A., F.G.S., Head Master of the Northampton Grammar School, to Roberta Henrietta, second surviving daughter of the late Rev. C. J. P. Doriet, M.A., rector of Metcalfe, Jamaica.
 Smith and Hamilton—At St. Paul's, Wilton-place, London, the Rev. S. Spencer Smith, third son of Mr. Spencer Smith, of Brooklands, Hampshire, to Mary, eldest daughter of Vice-Admiral Cospatriek Baillie Hamilton.

DEATHS.

White—July 18, at Richmond, Limerick, in her 92nd year, Anne, widow of the late Henry F. White, formerly of Dublin.
 Prendergast—July 18, at Llandaff Lodge, Thurles, Robert Prendergast, Esq.
 Sterne—At her residence, Montenotte, Cork, Anne, widow of the late Captain William Sterne, R.N.
 Southampton—At Audley-square, London, Lord Southampton, in his 68th year.
 Kerr—At West Cliffe, Niton, I.W., aged 66, Beauchamp
 Kerr, Esq., son of the late Lord Charles Beauchamp
 Kerr, and grandson of the fifth Marquis of Lothian.
 Maxwell—At Calais, the Hon. Marmaduke Constable Maxwell, of Terregles, aged 66.
 Kingston—At his residence, Devonshire-terrace, Cleveland-square, London, Arthur B. Kingston, Captain R.N.
 Young—At Southsea, Colonel James Young, Royal (late Bengal) Artillery.
 Hawkins—At Baden-Baden, the Rev. J. B. Hawkins, D.D., British Chaplain.
 Nash—At New York, Thomas Nash, a native of the county
 Limerick, in the 27th year of his age.
 Erwin—At Tennessee, the wife of Patrick Erwin, aged 43,
 a native of Kilmallock, county Limerick.
 Hart—At Louisville, U.S., Henry Hart, Esq., C.E., formerly of Dublin.
 Lambart—At Steamer Point, Aden, Staff Assistant-Surgeon
 Richard Rothwell Lambart.

part he has taken in the rejoicing that the two g world have resolved to su
 the decision, not of arms, b

To be A FIRST Class Belgray
 months in use, account of leaving the Moore, Limerick Warehouse
 July 20.

£1,00
TO BE LENT at 5 per security of Land.
 Apply to JAMES NASH,
 Royal Insurance Office,
 Limerick.

Cheese and
THE Immense Stock
 held by the Subscri him to offer advantages to JAMES
WINE MERCHANT
 4, GEORGE-
 July 20.

Diocese of
 The following Benefices
CROOM
BRUFF
NANTE
RATHK
RATHER Information respecting a will be given by the Hon.
 Council—The Archdeacon,
 bett, Vicarage, Bruree.
 July 13.

CHAMPAGNE
CHAMPAGNE CIDE
 and in the highest had in bottle from H. PA
 Tea, Wine, and 21, PATRICK
 LIMER
 April 18.