

... what happened the others. They pu
... the "Limerick" quickly regained her
... and as it was then near home, maintained
... the winning point a length beyond
... and rival. It was hard to say which ... a fairer day, have the advantage. When ... sets Greek, everyone knows what the tug
... her had fair play from Father Shannon,
... rned on the fun, and was earlier than usual
... gry ebullition, which he exhibits at the
... of the equinox. It would be better fix
... in future when his majesty is in unruffled
... mour, and wears that benign and beauti-
... t over which the brightest and broadest of ... rland ripple so very enchantingly. The
... a cup which must be contested another
... d the competitors will not be idle who cant
... om the more matured rancors of the Lime-
... t Club.

BY PETTY SESSIONS—YESTERDAY.

Magistrates on the Bench at the Petty Sessions—Alderman Carte, locum tenens for the
... in the chair; Alderman Quinlan, Robert
... all, William Phayer, Alderman O'Calla-
... r, O'Shaughnessy, Maurice Lehiban.
... pid looking man, named Martin Golding,
... ight up in custody charged with stealing
... ney, a handkerchief and a penknife from a
... ned M'Mahon.
... hon was examined, and deposed that he was ... on the preceding day in the city. The pris-
... as in his company during part of the day.
... tified the handkerchief and penknife prop... s his property. The prisoner said that he
... a in M'Mahon's company, and was much
... at his "treating" numbers of people and that ... his property out of pure affection and for

... philanthropist was sentenced to three months'
... ment with hard labour.
... annix, and three lads named Carroll, Hoare,
... aught, were charged by Sub-constable Cogh-
... having assaulted him. The Subconstable
... that he had arrested Hoare on the charge
... lting a woman named Mrs O'Neill. Hoare
... sisted the arrest, and was aided by the other
... nts and Mrs Mannix.
... swer to Mr Connolly, who appeared for the ... nts, the Sub-constable stated that he had ... the assault committed, but he saw the pri-
... olent.
... Connolly submitted that this was not a legal

... urise, SI, said that it was a legal arrest, as
... eared that the prisoner would commit a ses-
... sult on the woman.
... Connolly said that the Bench should deal
... ally between the police and the public, and
... better should be protected from illegal

THE LATE SIR TERENCE MURRAY.
Advices from Sidney announce the death of Sir Terence Aubrey Murray, President of the Legislative Council of New South Wales. In a former notice of the demise of this eminent gentleman it was erroneously stated that he was born in Limerick.
He had his birth in Balliston, the present residence of his immediate relative, Patrick Murray, Esq, JP, and not far from the residence of H Murray Gun, Esq, JP, a member of the old respected, and popular family. Sir Terence was son of Captain Terence Murray, of the 48th Foot, by Ellen, his wife, daughter of James Fitzgerald, Esq of Movida, in the county of Limerick, and a brother of this gentleman was a distinguished member of the Press, and editor of a London newspaper. Whilst in that position he was called to the English Bar, acquired and deserved the honour of knighthood, and was appointed Governor of Sierra Leone, where he died in 1822.
In Sidney Sir Terence filled successively the offices of Chairman of Committees, Auditor General, Secretary for Works, and Secretary for Lands, and was twice unanimously elected Speaker of the Legislative Assembly. He acted as Executive Commissioner for New South Wales at the Paris Exhibition of 1867, and was knighted by patent in 1869, in consequence of the visit, the previous year, of the Duke of Edinburgh to Sidney. Sir Terence married, first, 1843, Mary, second daughter of Colonel Gibbes, and secondly, Agnes, daughter of John Edwards, Esq.

THE MILITIA.

Headquarters, Curragh Camp,
26th August, 1873.

General Order.—His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant has expressed his great regret that the weather has precluded his seeing the troops this day at the Curragh Camp, after the preparations which had been made to receive him. The troops remained ready to turn out until two o'clock, when it was finally decided that the state of the men and horses was such, from the quantity of rain which had fallen, that it would have been unfair to turn them out. His Excellency has been pleased to express his gratification at the reports he has received of the efficiency of the troops, and at the field days of which he himself has been a spectator, and more especially with regard to the three militia regiments, viz: the Royal Tyrone Fusiliers, the Westmeath Rifles, and the Limerick County, which are considered to have made excellent use of their time, and to have taken their places in brigade with much credit to themselves.

By order,
J. M. PRIMROSE, D.A.G.

A LIBERAL LANDLORD.

Sir William S McMahon, Bart, accompanied by his brother, Robert McMahon, Esq, and Joseph Gubbins, Esq, Kilfrush, arrived at the residence of his agent, T Greene, Esq, Bindon street, Ennis, on Tuesday last, and on Wednesday, in company with him,
... day last, and on Wednesday, in company with him,