

UP TRAINS.
Limerick Dep.	10.25	3.50	5.45
Newcastle Arr.	12.5	...	7.35
Foynes ditto	11.55	5.15	...

The Vandaleur or other Steamer will ply between Foynes and Kilrush in connexion with the 10.25 a.m. Up, and 12.35 p.m. Down Trains every week day, leaving Kilrush at 10.15 a.m., and returning from Foynes on arrival of 10.25 a.m. Train.

The Vandaleur will cease to ply on and after Saturday, 1st November, 1873.

By Order,

ISAAC BANKS,

Traffic Manager.

Limerick Terminus, Sept. 1873.

[19847]

TARBERT PIG MARKET.

THE MARKET for the SALE OF PIGS at TARBERT will open on MONDAY, the 29th SEPTEMBER instant, and be continued on every second MONDAY during the year.

The Pig Merchants are most anxious for the establishment of a Pig Market at Tarbert, and have promised to attend.

They say they can and will give THREE SHILLINGS or MORE per PIG for those BOUGHT at TARBERT than for the same class of Pigs if bought at any of the neighbouring Markets.

Farmers, whose undoubted interest it is to support the Tarbert Pig Market, are therefore earnestly requested to send in their Pigs on Market days.

The Pigs should arrive in the Market on each Market day at an early hour.

Remember! MONDAY in every SECOND WEEK; commencing MONDAY, 29th SEPTEMBER, 1873.

Sept. 27th.

(19850)

MARRIAGE.

KEANE AND ELLIS—Sept. 25, at Trinity Church, Rush, county Tyrone, by the Dean of Clonfert, assisted by the Rev Christopher Irvine, incumbent, Perceval W. Esane, Esq. eldest son of Marcus Keane, Esq. Beechpark, county Clare, J.P., to Mary Frances, only daughter of the late Rev. Robert Ellis, of Rush House, county Tyrone.

DEATH.

LLOYD—Sept. 17, at the residence of his nephew-in-law, W Barrington, CE, 84, George street, Limerick, at an advanced age, Mrs Hester Matilda Lloyd, widow of the late Thomas Prince Lloyd, Esq, Longford House, County Tipperary, and last surviving child of the late Richard and Hester Elliott Millett, of St Johnstown Castle, County Tipperary.

manifested in Tipperary, where addresses at the banquet were bearing than they might well was displayed in Tralee, at the banquet in which the noble ho and the senior Representative bore their influential and popul it was demonstrated in Kilrus excellence, as will be gathered which our columns contain.

By no spirit more cordial o truthful or earnest, could festi like occasions be pervaded, tha diffused by Colonel Vandeleu: Reeves, and other gentlemen, v year, preside or attend at the sc dious productions have indeed with the view of disparaging t society, with no better purpose gence of some petty malevole small success in the gratificati

Abortive as such attempt still less could they affect i unions in which ranks, creeds a change sentiments that every right minded person will com if compliments are paid and re- est, good will is reciprocated v rity by gentle and simple; in recognises the obligations it o and industry, reserving no a from station, binds it to the ob stowal the more; and through cepts and suggestions are offe sal and treatment of a princi those that emanated from th named, as well as from others the trade, expend capital by w rity of the town and district is

Nowhere have such tangibl more practically discussed tha meetings of the West Clare So absence of activefarmers, who whilst the sun shone, and sei nity of saving all that his ab thinned the numerical attendi bition, the meeting in the ba pensated for the deficiency in and the discussion upon da market rules was of infinite commercial worth to West C For those objects and c