THE CONVENT OF MEMOY, RILKES.

The title is but a little us get. Two years have peased and the Nune have only been lodgers in the occupancy of a rented and instificient residence. The sphere of their nectulness is contracted to the marrowest limits, sind the sprincipal worth of their mission lost. Every year which is agent without a Convent and Schools, is a year birren of the blessings which are derived from each; and it is time to what a beginning of huilding both structures. The parts position of the Theorem and Development of the State and the second of the position of the State and the second of the county.

NTY OROWN COURT—Valento, rdakip, Justice Mosers, antened bor

Allies to Policont to OF a, Patrent My Rive son.

Christopher King was placed at the bar charged with poisoning his fat ter. John King, ou the 26th Lugues, 1279, at Cappa th, in the County of Lime feet.

riok.
The following jury was sworn to key the same.—
John Kashing, foreman; John Power, John Res, John Gaveny, John Power, Michael Callegan, John Haipin, James Barry, Michael Ragem, Michael Al, Ambroos, Thomas Power, and William Callaghan.
Caumel for the Grown—Sir Colman O'Loghlen.
Caumel for the Grown—Sir Colman O'Loghlen,
Mr. O'Hae, instructed by Mr. Roche, Crown Soilettoe.

Counsel for the prisoner—Mr Waters, QC, and Mr O'Loughlen. Attorney—Mr Coegrave, Rath

but the greater up.

but the moderate conditions.

"To deserve the gratifued of the inhabitants, wer applications, fewer funeralis would and to weakes the resident complete, and to the hot be noted that loss of habour of men, to speak of the s trial. Colman O'Logblen said they did not then press the evidence, but they would now do so, and he referred to the Montgomery case where a similar, to the collection and in the form of the collection of the reliaing in the Montgomery case, and decided in the raling in the Montgomery case, and decided in favor of the Crown.

Coorn.

Sir Column O'Loghlen' then proceeded with his statement, and to read the following confession made by the prisoner, and written down in his presence, by the police. (The document will be found given in seidence, Sir Collegable continued se ay that there would be evidence given of other sire matures world be evidence given of other sire matures world prober the collegations of the prisoner, and the prisoner; was pointed out the greek debte decoased which he had opened; there were two coffies; bad the corpus removed to the deed house; William King identified the, body as that of his father; locked the door of the dead house and kept key until Professor Cameron and Doctor Hamilton arrived;

as who stometh taken out and put in an earther
jaw. The witness was not cross examined.

Surgeon Hamilton examined by Sir Coleman
O'Loghien, deposed that he remembered the body being given up by Mr Wolfs; the spins of the body was more arched than usan; the body appeared to
was more arched than usan; the body appeared to
was more arched than usan; the body appeared to
was more arched than usan; the body of the stome;
it appeared to be head the best of the stome;
was sound; there was a small hernis on the left side; the stomesh and liver were given to Professor Cameron; the body did not present the appearance of a sudden death, independent of poisoning;
To Mr Waters—There are several causes of death unknown to medical science, even at the present day.

Charles A Cameron. Enotesor of Chemistry, and handys of the City of Dublie, axamined by MrDeficioleys, deposed he assigned by dismitting at the accumation of the body; concurred in the strikenthem to his laboratory; rowe is reparances in the town the laboratory; rowe is reparances in the town the laboratory; rowe is reparances in the town the subcomen; that is a charactersisted of washing the state in a characteristant of the body is account for audden death; recaived the duodenum; that is a characteristant of the subcomen; that is a character-dress on them.

Mr William King examined by Sir C O'Longhlen, deposed he was brother of the prisoner; knew his handeriting; identified the entry in Mr Bourke's book as the prisoner's handwriting; was at the erhumation of his father; identified his father's body;

topher Stephen King.

John Yaughan, in reply to Mr DeMoleyns, deposed that he buried the body of the dog given him by Mr Hinchy; saw the same dog dag up.

Constable J Drasoll examined by Sir Columnz

O'Loghten—I arrested the prisoner and brought to the barrees! I cautioned him that any state

o hauntenes; most or treation. To Sir Coleman O'Loghlen—He said when I select him to put on lets cost—"The old man rea very nice, but he had very peculiar ways; I ras like a servant—even cooking for him; I ras like a servant—even cooking for him; I can what I done was a most frightful act, for eee my age now, what less could I do; "ecorted to "hetherals with Sub Contable."

Power to be a fittle numericae, but to know mans.

To Mr O'Loghlen—Could not swear that the prisoner slept in the barrack the night previous; as the numerican seed of the prisoner slept in the barrack the night previous; as the numerican seed of the previous of the numerican seed of the previous of the numerican seed of the prisoner; went into the kitchen; did not see a bottle of whiskey now a drop of whiskey thas morning; set down in the room; wrote the mannerandum of the prisoner's statement in the day room of ound to appear before magnitudes the prisoner were informations, and the prisoner had a right to get a copies of them. The law was jesious of the lives and liberty of the people, and when such a course as that taken on the present case was followed with regard to the constable's evidence, it became but a hollow, shameful mockery. Counsel than proceeded to comment on the evidence of Constable Driscoll gard to the constables came but a heliuw, shameful mockery. Counsel then proceeded to comment on the evidence of Constable Driscoll, who said the prisoner was quite cool and collected, while counsel would prove that the prisoner was in delirum tremens. They should bear in mind throughout that the accountable said the prisoner stated he had conveyed the poison into the bread and butter, while the case for the Crown was that the poison was in the less. That was the meaning of proving against the prisoner except those confessions which were the most unreliable kind of evidence. They had heard the evidence of Father Couway.

Christophas, in the city of Limerick, at the establishment, of De Bourke, who keeps a Medical Hallin this city, purchased half adrachm of strychnine. Of course, gendeman, you will take me only as anggesting that it has been proved beyond centiversy. On the tending the proved hey offer the commented on the evidence of the Bourke, regarding the purchase of the poince. He then continued—Well, gentleman, what became of that strychnine, or what the came of that strychnine, or what the poince. He then continued—Well, gentleman, what became of that strychnine, or what the prisoned did with it in the interval couple of ar as I will leged to have been made to may Constable Driscoil, we cannot at present say, as we are obliged necessarily to step them Monday, the 19th August to Monday, the 28th August, one week. Upon the morating of the 28th August, which appears to have been fair day at Rathkeal, fith decessed man was about going to the fair with some stood to dispose of couple of men, Hinchy and Noonan, arrived sarly in the morning for the purpose of the couple of men, Hinchy and Noonan, arrived sarly in the morning for the purpose fair or getting them. In the couple of men, the couple of men, the couple of men, the couple of men, the couple of the purpose of the couple of men, the couple of the purpose of the pu whether he is guilty or not refinding for you to asy. The learned judge then slot the case to the jury after a most fair and impartial charge, last ing for two hours and twenty minutes.

The jury then retired, and after a few hours absence returned into Court with a varidit of NOT GUILTY. The result created great surpaise. The prejeoner turned quite just when he leaved the verdict. He was instantly discharged, and was followed from the Court and through the streets by a crowd.

In the case of Timothy Ryan, Thomas Ryan and Thomas Woods, charged with assaulting Michael Kirt, the jury found the Ryans Guilty, and soquitted the other prisoner.

In the case of Micholey, John Berrane, Michael Kirk, the jury found to Ryans Guilty, and Silloolsy, charged with assaulting Thomas Conway, the girry Acquitted the prisoner.

In the case of Timothy Coleman, radiated for shooting at Michael McGuire, at Ballylanders, the jury Acquitted the prisoner.

Thomas Griffin, for larveny of a watch, was sentenced to air months imprisonment with hard labour.

Anne Guerin, for larveny of clothes, was sen-

MAIDEN ASSIZES.

MAIDEN ASSIZES.

BARON DEAST entered the City Court this day (Thursday) at 12 o'clock, accompanied by the City High Sheriff, M. R. Byan, Esq., J.P., and the Mayor, J.J. Cleary, Esq.
The Produmntice] baring been read, the following Grand Inry were sworn before Mr William Massy Beautaman, Deputy Citer of the Crown:—Alderman Lawrence Quinlivan, (Foreman). John Quinn, T.C.
A. W. Staw.
B. MacDonnell.
W. S. Cor.
M. Leuliann.
W. Hoeford.
F. Conthan.

John Abraham.

A. Fitzgerald.

J. P. Newsome.

W. Carroll.

S. Hastings.

Thomas E. O'Brien.

John O'Neill.

B. Hanraham.

Denis McNamara.

G. Harris.

—This was an appeal from airman of Quarter Sessions ht by a farmer named O'Neill

Blackall, BL, instructed by Mr Blackall, appeared for the plantiff. Mr Marphy, QC, and Mr Cleary, BL, finatructed by Mr Consolly, appeared for the definedatia. This was an action for the amount of a provilasory moto passed by the plantiff to the defendant for a sum of 2155 Se lack under the intelligence and passed of the Bridget Ground opposed that her factorizations are the prior to her brother's marriage at Kittesly: 1 have the two other brother's marriage at Kittesly: 1 have the woother brother's marriage at Kittesly: 1 have the same of was stated to you in marriage, got up to 42 acres of land and the stock; there was money deposited in the heat for me, Pat there was money deposited in the heat for me, Pat the was dead and the pat the state of th on the year Locatis ruled as square one (uniquely).

a, his O'Reissi-Toank, you I knew you would not a fact of (langkhow). I am believe the you would not a fact of the control of the con

GROGAN v GROBAN.—The hearing of this case was resursed at the sitting of the court.
Parther evidence was then given and the jury retired. After a brief absence, they returned into court with a verdet in favor of the plaintiff, returns evineure was some priors and the july retrieved. After a brief absence, they returned into court with a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. Neiland y Laffas—This was an action for 600 list the amount of a bill of exhange passed to the plaintiff and verdict for the plaintiff and verdict for the plaintiff and verdict for the plaintiff and the verdic

TELEGRAPHIC DESPATCHES

The Prince and Princess of Wales, with the Czarevitch and Czareina, visited, this afternoon, the Central Telegraph office, which middle present the wast interesting sighted in Loudon. 900 operators, about hill of whom are yearn women, had arranged, on a very short notice, to decorate both the room and themselves, in a becoming mid attractive manner. The Princesses were evidently much gratified, and manifested, great interest in the proceedings.

Consols, sixteenth lower.

STRIKE OF THE METROPOLITAN POLICE.

A despatch has arrived from Dublin to the effect that 700 of the Metropolitan Police struck for an increase of psy to-day.

They demand a satisfactory reply by the 15th instant.

15th instant.

Considerable fears are entertained for the encode of the City.

It is also feared the "atriko" may extend throughout the country.

TARBERT BUTTER MARKET.

TABLERY, TURDAY, Sth JULY, There was a large attendance of merchants at the Botter Market thicky, amongst whom we noticed Mr. Swaine, Mr. D Byan, Mr E Blattery, Mesers. Clayton & Bon, Mr. Longbottom, Mr. Reasel, jun, Limerick; Mr Carmody, Kilrush. The buying was very brizk—an improvement naving taken place in prices; 2s 6d and 3s over the prices current at Litstowel Batter Market last. Friday were freely given. The greatest satisfaction was manifested by the farmers at the way in which the butter was bungle up. Only three firking left the masket (unsold. The quantity of buttering the handle the terminal remained away the last two market days, in somequence of the fall in price and general depression in the Butter trade during the past three weeks, which caused merobants to lessen their purposaces and prevented their attending country karkets in greater numbers. Farmers should send in their butter returned.

At Thursday's market there were 1077 firkin of bitter presented for sale. The highest prices given were 72s 6d for three quarters (mil-oured) and 70s for hippen quarters (heavy sale and is wer coundflow severy additional pound it