0 infantry and 500 t, and drove them into nas long since refused ower, and the Ministry ir country, and to the llow no miserable amof their completion of ation of the Monarchy, as Lieutenant of the question of weeks; and be sharp and stormy, the majority is a maa strong hand in the xecution.

camp is divided as to e for the organization of to intimidate the deewns; others for open general resignation of has just made a speech lat been allowed to aplist openly seditious and ity of the Assembly.

d from his Swiss tour, to be full of confidence iblic. It is difficult to based, save on an in-Italy, and the Conti-

Il, on Friday, the reBrown was continued, the questions put were rexplained that as he s to be presecuted for t to test the witness's ansactions between him Rio. A sensation was of a piece of paper by ad been dilapidated by d which Brown admitted ificate he supposed had tesses, principally militestic servants, identified lichborne.

air yesterday the classes vere bullocks and heifers. ptionally fine stock sold average run on the mars follows :- Full-grown first-class quality from quality, £16 to £17; and Two year olds of the n £12 to £14, and second £12; yearlings brought ras almost a total absence hich there used to be a w lots in the fair were of re was a large attendance purchases were made by iers, and also by Dublin ing continued. The Marnmoved in his demeanour, ig very ill at ease. A painroduced in French military cred against Colonel Stoffel to the effect that he interdespatch from Bazaine to

The next Mails for Australia and New Zealand will be despatched from London as follows:—Via Southampton, on the morning of Thursday, the 23rd October. Via Brindisi, on the evening of Friday, the 31st October.

QUEENSLAND—TRANSMISSION OF JEWELRY, &c., IN LETTERS.

The Post Office of Queensland having given notice to the Department that packets containing Jewelry or other articles of value, received in that colony are chargeable with Customs' duties, the Postmaster General thinks it necessary to make this regulation known to the public, and to state that any letters or packets containing such articles, sent through the post to Queensland, are, according to the Colonial Laws, liable to be detained and not delivered to the addresses until the Customs' duties have been paid.

OBITUARY.

Wr take the following from the "Republican" of Washinton, Sept. 11th. The deceased was the daughter of Mr David McDonough, Castletown, Co Limerick:—

OBSEQUIES OF SISTER BENEDICTA.—IMPOSING CEREMONIES.—AN AFFECTING SCENE.

The funeral services of Sister Benedicta Mary (McDonough), one of the Little Sisters of the Poor, whose death was announced in the last issue of this paper, took place from St Aloysius church.

The ceremony was simple and solemn. The chief mourners were her late associates in charity and the aged and infirm then and women of the institution, many of whom were in tears during the impressive service. The Sisters of the Holy Cross, with the orphan boys of St Joseph's Asylum, were present; also, several Sisters of Charity and a large number of ladies and gentlemen.

The ceffin was plain and adorned only with a crown of beautiful white flowers, but during the solemnities a lady advanced to the casket and placed upon it a magnificent cross, made of japonicas an immortelles.

Requiem Mass was ceebrated by Rev Father Barotti, chaplain of the Home of the Aged Poor and Infirm, and was assisted by Rev Fathers Corrigan and San Martimo. The funeral service after the Mass was performed by Rev Father Maguire, who, when he had finished reading the prayers for the dead, spoke a few touching words, although the rule of the Sisters does not allow any eulogy on such occasions. He alluded to the self sacrificing lives of the Sisters, to their heroic services for the poor, and to the glory that such lives reflect upon the Church, where alone religious orders are found.

The solemn cortege proceeded to Mount Olivet, attended by a large number of our best Catholics, and the remains were buried with the last impressive ceremonial of the Church. Thus the good Sister Benedicta rests from her labors of love, and has gone to receive her crown in heaven.

DEATH OF THE REV. LAURENCE HANNON, C.C.

We regret to anmounce the death on the 5th instant, from a short but fatal attack of fever, of the Rev Laurence Hannon, C.C., Clare Castle. He had only just completed the 24th year of his life and the first of his sacred ministry. His course was subrief and yet so full that his memory will be fondly dwelt upon by many who are still in Maynooth; while his simple piety, his engaging manner, and Ar the recent art examination, in connection with the Science and South Kensington, Miss Annie S & was the fortunate winner of four p was a gold medal, an honor rarely prizes were handed the young l Lieutenant.

On Wednesday a district court at Templemore Garrison, on Priva a deserter from the 76th Regimwas sentenced to be imprisoned if for one hundred and sixty eight piration of which period he is to the regiment ignominiously.

Ar the Tralee Union. on Wedness returns showed a balance in bar guardians of £1,793 3s 1d. At the question of the water supply to be considered—it is one of vetance, and Sir Maurice J. O'Conr with the desire of the Board, has present, LIEUTENANT R W Graham, Militia, having undergone a conat the School of Musketry, Hyt a First Class Certificate (Extra to instruct in the theory and ketry. Captain William Alexa permitted to retain his rank at wear the uniform of the regime ment; Henry Charles Manser, 39th Foot, to be captain.

THE 20th of last month was the death of Emmett, who was corresponding day in 1808, and we caped after the abortive attemp but for his attachment to the day which he was drawn back. Wicklow, where he had taken refourhood of Dublin, where he was men of the notorious Sirr.

The Tralee October Fair was hevery department of cattle was The attendance of buyers was I and calves were most in demand. paid for heifers appears to have six sold to Mr P Slattery, Clash, Kelechill. Two year old heifers of £11 each, and calves at £3 10s at £4 each. Business in sheop wounder of good horses for sale v Ar the last Ennis Petty Sessions Mr Shannon, two spirit retailers, Clerk, Mr J Ryall, a shilling each, signing their license certificates, they were not legally bound to gave no opinion on the point, but RM, said the practice of payir other counties. The clerk and ton their rights, and so the matt the Chairman of Quarter Sessipoint.

Ar the last meeting of the En Master charged the Labour Mas improper conduct with a female ward, at eleven o'clock at night