

J. Kilmalleck, in the received from Dundalk division trains to go on Newry, Dundalk, and Belfast, Londonderry, and a thousand Ulstermen on Sunday, the

UNSTABULARY.
of Ennistymon station, service of ten years, well to the rank and pay of the 1st inst., and transferred to the same county.

BOARD OF GUARDIANS.
(RESPONDENT).
the Board.
HEADLY in the chair, were under considerable tenders in from Dublin Medical Officers to whom the Board on this subject the following report:—
"The Apothecary's Hall, Dublin, for for drugs for this is supplied this Union with genuine medicines of the best quality drugs we can get at a fair and reasonable value."
15th October, 1873.

LETTER FOR 1874.
It is anticipated at the time, on the 1st of September, that the rumours through which are said to be poisoning of City Magistrate held, and an application to the Lord Lieutenant to direct that special constables be appointed on the 1st of December in observation of the peace. The statement is to the effect that the requisitionists, we are sure on the footing that it is not only directed against an attempt was made by the Magistrate's them, but the apprehensions are, if otherwise, that the control beyond the popular opinion will, if it is not otherwise, have been before and that the election of a committee to be conducted as becomes the character for order and peace from it.

SECTION FOR THE NEW WARD.
yesterday for a Town meeting caused in the representation Ward by the election

THE TOWN COMMISSIONERS, using refused admission to the Courthouse to hold a meeting having reference to a Home Rule deputation, have come to the resolution of in future holding their usual monthly meetings in some other place besides that building.

THOMAS COSTELLO, Esq., County Coroner, held an inquest on the body of a young woman named O'Neill, who met her death on Tuesday while engaged tending a threshing machine. Her dress became entangled in the machinery, and the unfortunate woman was dragged on the machine before it could be stopped. Her head was ground into a soft mass, and her body was greatly bruised. Verdict of accidental death.

THE wife of Mr Elliott, Station Master, Castleconnell, was found nearly dead in a field in the neighbourhood some days since. It is supposed she became exhausted from exposure to cold in gathering some herbs, and soon after being taken home she died. An inquest was held, but postponed until a "post mortem" examination of the body was made by a medical man.

CAPTAIN W C Hamilton, R.M., Hon Sec., County Lare Rifle Club, is to be entertained by his fellow members generally, and presented with an address conveying an expression of the high esteem in which he is held by a

THE finances of the Tulla Races were so admirably managed, that a handsome balance remains in the Treasurer's hands. It is needless to refer to the general success which attended the meeting.

At the Ennistymon Fair on Wednesday, there was a fine show of stock for sale. Good milch cows fetched from £14 to £16; two-and-a-half year old heifers, £10 to £13 10s; year olds, £7 to £9; weanings, £2 to £4. Pigs were very fair, and fetched from 50s to 54s 6d per cwt.

PRICES at last Ennistymon Butter Market, reached as high as 85s for 3-0-14 for the first class article. The supply was not very large, but very good for its season.

MDME. Telma became ill on Saturday night whilst taking part in a concert given by the National Opera Company at Waterford. She had sung "Sweet Spirit hear my Prayer" and was rendering the song of the "Minstrel Boy," when she suddenly ceased singing and fell heavily on the stage. Immediate attention enabled the lady to re-appear to acknowledge the sympathy shown by the audience. In the meantime one of the Police Force, who witnessed the occurrence fainted, and had to be conveyed from the room by his comrades.

AN investigation has been held at Hospital into the cases of Daniel and Edward Crowe arrested under suspicion of connexion with the death of Patk. Mitchell, steward to Mr J Gubbins, Kilfrush, last June. After the murder the accused, whose father held a dairy farm indirectly under Mr Gubbins, disappeared from the neighbourhood, and were not heard about until they surrendered a week ago in Tipperary. The evibe said—Ladies and Gentlemen—the Committee and the member Mechanics' Institute for the honored on us all—the guests, in this evening to partake of their hospitality, and to enjoy the pleasure of a happy scene (cheers). Individually to thank you for, not alone for this occasion, but for the generous received when I first came among many marks of your regard with since been favored (Several voices—cheers). I need scarcely and satisfaction it affords me to attend any assemblage of my fellow which their welfare and happiness and especially to be present at so much, to both as this one. You have set a noble example to in forming a Literary Institute of intelligent working men of our to have you offered an easy way to the knowledge from sound literary and splendid library which you possess but very many of you have likewise example in your adherence to temperance, without which all the world is useless to the working man fame of the Temperance Society spread far beyond the confines of has won golden opinions for the mechanics of the town [loud cheers] with the other visitors who have this evening, I have only to express pleasure it affords each and all of in wishing prosperity and success you have founded and fostered with assiduity [cheers]; an institute proof were necessary, how deeply you appreciate intellectual cultivation and patriotism, affording as you do so many facilities for self improvement to the the town [loud cheers]. The good and order you have displayed are worthy of all praise. I only regret express the sincere and unalloyed me to meet you, and the charm and taste presented by the fair ladies who have honored your social presence, giving an eclat it could not in their absence [loud and continued].

Mr. Thomas Corry returned that the members of the Literary Institute. Mr John O'Connell, in brief but acknowledged the toast of "Trades Benevolent Society," which recently formed, and which promises comprehensive name imports.
After supper, which was most dancing was resumed with great attention, and continued until 5 o'clock.

BOARD OF FISHERY CONSERVATION

On Thursday last the ordinary meeting of the Fishery Conservator Shannon was held in the County R W G Reeves, Esq. JP occupied. Amongst those present were—M R Ryan, JP; Charles Armist Joseph Robinson, Corbally; William Leconnell; Thomas H Kenny, so H G Bindon, Corbally; Thomas street; Captain Leslie, Tarbert