

l they spoke about my one could do nothing; when I I brought a letter to him pon my oath Mrs. Morony attorney, but she gave me izer—I did not see her the down until the next er, R.M., about her going attorney, she said she could ; that it was a foolish turn e in her life.

mean to tell the Court that t expense, and consulted an ving what your object was?
o Ennis for sport, and often ughter).

re old enough to give over I think we have you in a net d woman.

n of the former witness, Morny so far, having seen Mr.

about the place after the ngushed but didn't see any saw them go in the direc-White's gate, back towards as standing in the porch when about twelve o'clock.

ere ere a good many gates ight, Dartnell's double gate out I did not see who did it, nevis mother went to Ennis t she didn't tell him what he h, to go to an attorney; she o it.

r said that closed the case unless the production of a e Cassidy had told what she that would not be legal eviaddressed the Court. He said

White, and the young man n trust into the case with the
; it a colour of truth, but a empt to bring into odium a and respectability was never ring his long experience as a r. Hugh White was the son of fficer and of a lady of position, , of Fortanne, a family of high own throughout the county. s married to a lady from the whose amiability of character position had endeared her in h she moved; and he did not more audacious attempt had uin the character and blast the lemen, was never attempted l the motives which prompted to those behind the scene. e evidence of that wretched , and her whole story no one otherwise than false from be-und that for the sake of sake of revenge upon Mr.

Orkney, James Gould, Esq., only son of George Gould, Esq., of Aughrim, county Cork, to Margaret, eldest daughter of the late William Fisher, Esq., of Ferryhill House, Aberdeen.

Seymour and Campbell—Dec. 3, at St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, London, by the Hon. and Rev. Robert Liddell, George Evelyn, youngest son of the Right Hon. Sir George Hamilton Seymour, G.C.B. and K.C.B., to Evelyn Elizabeth, daughter of Archibald J. Campbell, Esq., of 3, Wilton-terrace, Belgrave-square, London.

Macpherson and Maclean—Dec. 2, at the Church of All Saints, Southampton, by the Rev. Arthur Bradley, M.A., rector, John Macpherson, of the High Court, and of the High Court, Bombay, eldest son of the late Rev.
Robert Macpherson, M.A., to Emily Christian Maclean, eldest daughter of W. Campbell Maclean, C.B., M.D., Surgeon-General and Professor of Military Medicine, Army Medical School, Netley.

DEATHS.

Curling—On the 3rd inst., at The Castle, Newcastle West county Limerick the wife of the late Edward Curling, Esq., J.P., aged 62 years.

Salt—On Tuesday, 24th Nov., at his residence, Pembrokeroad, Clifton, Bristol, J. Salt, Esq., late of Birmingham.

Minchin—On the 4th inst., at Rock Abbey, Cashel, rather suddenly, the wife of Captain Minchin, late R.N.

Hanan—At Shannon Grove, in this county, Mrs. Martha Hanan, relict of the late Dr. Hanan, of the county of Cork, aged 73 years.

Switzer—At Pallaskenry, suddenly, Mr. Julius Switzer, much respected in that town and its vicinity, aged 73 years, an upright man and sincere Christian.

Gorman—Dec. 4, at the residence of her son, 94, Stephen's-green, Dublin, Mary, widow of the late Capt. T. Gorman, of Limerick.

La Touche—Dec. 3, at her residence, Clyde-road, Dub., the Hon. Mrs. La Touche, aged 91 years.

Saul—Dec. 3, at Bishopstown, Cork, the residence of her sister (Mrs. Deasy), Mrs. A. Saul.

McCarthy—Dec. 2, at 3, Summer-hill, South, Cork, Mr.
Eugene McCarthy.

Barry—Dec. 3, at his residence, Timoleague, county Cork, Mr. John Barry, eldest son of Mr. Garrett Barry, New-mill, Rosscarbery.

Rice—Dec. 1, at her residence, Kilally, Kilworth, county Cork, Elizabeth N., wife of Edmond Rice, aged 70 years.

Cox—At the Rectory, Litton Cheney, the Rev. James Septimus Cox, aged 69 years.

Foster—Dec. 2, at his residence, St. Giles'-street, Norwich, Sir William Foster, Bart., aged 76 years.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

The Rev. J. F. Gregg thankfully acknowledges the receipt of the following contributions for Trinity Church charities:—Mr. and Mrs. Ievers, annual subscription, £12; Mrs. G. Gubbins, Miltown, £1; Mrs. Myles, £1; Rev. F.
Lawrence, £1; Mrs. Boxwell, 10s; A. S., 15s; Captain Bell, 10s; Mr. W. Fraser, 10s; Mrs. G. P. Harris, collection, £1 9s. Also, £13 17s 9d, collected in Trinity Church on Sunday last for Church Missionary Society (including £1 from Dowager Lady Massy).

The Treasurer of the Cathedral Fund thankfully acknowledges the following sums towards defraying the expenses incurred in connection with the late Mission Services:— William M. Beauchamp, Esq., £1; Mrs. Studdert, Kil-kishen, 5s; Arthur Russell, Esq., Lemquiffeld, 10s; Miss Peacocke, 2s 6d; the Ven. Archdeacon of Limerick, 5s; Handel Rogers, Esq., 2s 6d; Rev. J. T. Waller, 5s; Rev.
F. Studdert, 5s; Rev. Francis Meredyth, 5s; William Hosford, Esq., 2s 6d. Further contributions will be received, as above.

The Secretary, Protestant Orphan Society, thankfully acknowledges from C. John Coote, Esq., per Mrs. Webb, £2; W. Hosford, Esq., annual subscription to Trinity Church Branch, £5; Earl of Buckinghamshire, annual subscription, per Major Vandeleur, £5; Countess of Buckinghamshire, do., do., £5; John Vanderkiste, Esq., annual subscription £1; Mrs. Vanderkiste, do., £1; United General Gas Company, do., £1; Mr. T. R. Trousdell, do., 5s; Mrs. Watson, do. to Clarina Branch, £1.
Mrs. Webb begs to acknowledge £2 from Mr. Coote