

deed is a witness itself.

had the deed submitted for id said there could be no doubt and the occupation were in the and that it was all as good seen.

Mr. Flynn was in bed when the consigning the property to was in bed for a fortnight or had said to some one that right mind when the deed was s taking liquor for months after l—in fact, up to the time of his as given up to M'Carthy the of consignment was signed.

passed the jury for the defence. of importance to those poor here to defend the little left relative. It was also important bodied as to the character of

The question was whether used upon had been discharged. e fortune which M'Carthy was rely allied with that question. ew what the amount of that e of them was the wife of, he would suggest, precaution keep away, and they heard even saying that he did not consider ny importance. M'Carthy was ho, as they said, "minded the hen the marriage was spoken of asa fortune, and finally an agree- was made. He had a security on the 14th February, '73, by a, and left nothing undone which own interest. M'Carthy stated promissory note for a portion of and that £100 in cash was day of the marriage. That was urse. The custom was to pay a man had, and give a promis- remainder. But on the day of cCarthy said the money was not that Flynn asked him to take a ppeared that on the way to the howed him money, but said he t for his business. On the even- age, however, a bill, it was said, one, except they believed Meehan, seen that note unless McCarthy; of the witnesses for the plaintiff, ked one word about that transac- told them he knew nothing about gh the proposition to give a bill money on the day of the marriage. im by surprise, he had a that was drawn up by a solicitor's was the stamp got, all the shops here was the bill got so unex- arthy had been re-called, in order tch up this rotten case of fraud, are. McCarthy knew the man he th—that Flynn was rapidly ter- by the vice he was given up to— l provision for the future. Now, Vandeleur—Feb. 26, at Dresden, was wife of Vandeleur, of a daughter.

Stoney—March 2, at 8, Adelaide-road, Dublin, the wife of Johnstone T. Stoney, Esq., J.P., of Emell Castle, King's County, of a daughter.

Menzies—March 4, at 9, Rostrevor-terrace, Rathgar, county Dublin, Mrs. J. J. Menzies, of a son.

Phillipson—March 3, at Upper Pembroke-street, Dublin, the wife of Burton R. Phillipson, Esq., of a son.

FitzPatrick—March 3, at 9, Cullinstown-avenue, Dublin, the wife of S. A. O. FitzPatrick, Esq., Hibernian Bank, Naas, of a son.

Vivian—March 3, at 26, James's-street, Buckingham-gate, London, the Lady Augusta Vivian; of a daughter.

Seymour—March 3, at 4, Hobart-place, London, Mrs. Alfred Seymour, of a son.

Montgomery—March 3, at Portishead, Somerset, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel T. G. Montgomery, Royal Engineers, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

M'Cowen and Lee—On Wednesday, the 3rd March, at St. Mary's Church, Donnybrook, by the Rev. J. Parafey, Wm. Parsons M'Cowen, Esq., C.S., and late of the Office of Works and War Department, London, to Alicia Maria, daughter of the late Henry Lee, of Barna, N. S. Tipperary, Esq., and J.P. for that county.

Tarverner and Bevan—March 4, by special licence, St. Ann's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Dr. Russell, William F. Tarverner, Esq., s.s. Jamaica, to Catherine, youngest daughter of Joseph Bevan, Esq., Glen Bevan, Ormond, county Limerick.

Stoker and Harden—March 3, at St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Ralph W. Harden, B.A., assisted by the Rev. Charles W. Benson, LL.D., brother-in-law of the bride, Richard Nugent Stoker, Esq., Bengal Medical Staff, fourth son of Abraham Stoker, Esq., late of the Chief Secretary's Office, Dublin Castle, to Susan, third daughter of John Harden, Esq., City of Dublin Steam Company.

DEATHS.

Cunnah—On the 5th inst., at Killaloe, in the 39th year of his age, after a brief illness, Edward Benjamin Cunnah, Esq., eldest son of the late Edward Cunnah, Esq., Solr., Chester.

Creed—Feb. 25, at her brother's residence, Harding Villa, county Cork, Maria, widow of the late Rev. John Creed, M.A., incumbent of Killalihan, county Limerick, aged 47 years.

Kellett—March 1, at Clonacody, Clonmel, Vice-Admiral Sir Henry Kellett, K.C.B., in his 69th year.

Carthew—March 2, at 54, Waterloo-road, Dublin, Mary Anne, widow of the late Major Charles Carthew, 59th Regiment.

Chatterton—March 4, at Merrion-square, South, Dublin, very suddenly, William Smith Chatterton, Second Assistant-Registrar, Court of Chancery.

Borrowes—March 4, at his residence, Alma-terrace, Monkstown, county Dublin, Samuel Higgins Borrowes, Esq., aged 53 years.

Blacker—March 2, at 2, Paragon Buildings, Cheltenham, Hugh Henry, eldest son of the Rev. Beaver H. and Sophia Blacker, aged 18 years.

Jenkins—March 3, at 20, Southwell-gardens, South Kensington, London, Arthur Stewart, son of Edwd. Jenkins, M.P., aged two years.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

The Rev. J. F. Gregg thankfully acknowledges the following contributions for different charities:—s. Delmege, Esq., £1; Miss E. Smithwicke, 10s; J. R. Wallace, Esq., collection, £10 10s; Mrs. Ryves, collection, £1 2s 6d; A Friend, for collection for Protestant Orphan Society, £1.

Rev. A. G. Dann begs to acknowledge the following sums as contributions to charitable purposes:—Mr. Revington, £2; Mr. Matterson, £2; Dr. Geiston, £1; Rev. B. Jacob, £4; Mr. Hunt, £1; Messrs. Russell and Sons, £1; Mr. Beauchamp, £1; Mr. A. Murray, £1; Messrs. Boyd, £1; Mr. Cleeve, £1; Mr. Laird, £1; Mr. Moore, 10s; Mr. Mackay, 10s; Dr. Brien, 10s; Mr. W. Troussell, 10s; E. M. Russell, 10s; Mr. Finch, 5s; Mr. J. N. Russell, 5s; Mr.