

will be allowed to prevent the carry-this desirable object.—I remain, dear ly yours,

WM. H. O'SULLIVAN.

Commons, July 10th, 1875.

Kenagh assizes the second trial of Martin man 74 years of age, and his son Michael, murder of Martin's son-in-law, Stephen t Killenaule, was brought to a conclusion y night. The jury, as at the first trial, could not agree. They were directed to at half-past eleven o'clock were sent for ge, Mr. Baron Dowse. They stated that could not agree. They were again sent on being recalled at midnight, stated was yet no chance of agreement. His discharged them, and remanded the omen named Robinsen, mother and were sentenced to penal servitude for e Mayo assizes on Saturday for killing nd of the younger prisoner. rd Bishop of Cashel has fixed Thursday, instant, to hold the annual synod of the of Waterford and Lismore in the Protes-Waterford, at 11.30 o'clock. ocesan Council of Cashel and Emly will he Limerick Junction on Thursday, 15th when the day will be fixed for meeting l of the Diocese of the Cathedral, meeting held in Dublin yesterday at the of the Lord Mayor, £800 was subscribed fferers by the floods in France. oyal Agricultural Society's meeting at was opened yesterday, when the judging ious departments of live stock took place. the winners of the first prize was Her the Queen, in one of the Devon classes.— 7 of stock was very good, particularly in es, shorthorns, Devons, and pigs. His ghness the Prince of Wales was an unsuchibitor.

ancellor of the Exchequer has promised H. O'Sullivan, M.P., to lay on the table of se of Commons in the course of a few days from the heads of Customs and Excise ents, regarding the hon. member's com-n the subject of mixing spirits in bond. ebate on the Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) hursday night Mr. O'Sullivan warned the ent that they were responsible for the of lunacy in Ireland by reason of the de-they allowed to be practised on the people tioning the "doctoring" of bad Scotch in Irish bonded warehouses.

ate of things in Callan is unchanged. A ce of police, with magistrates, have arrived rve order. Father O'Keeffe's opponents in forcible possession of the parish church, rs are entertained that serious trouble ie, as they have expressed their determi-n obtain possession of his residence.

Donnithorne and Alexander—July 8, at Cloydah Church, county Carlow, by the Rev. Charles Leslie Alexander, rector of Stewkley, Bucks, uncle to the bride, Edward G.
M. Donnithorne, Captain Scots Greys, eldest son of E. H.
Donnithorne, Esq., of Colne Lodge, Twickenham, Middlesex, to Harriette Lucia, only daughter of John Alexander, Esq., of Milford, county Carlow.

Nolan and Barry—July 10, at Park House, county Cork, John M. Nolan, son of the late Luke Nolan, Esq., Ten-clash House, county Carlow, to Theodosia, eldest daughter of G. P. Barry, M.D., of Park House.

Robinson and Morris—In the Presbyterian Church, Clonakilty by the Revs. Robert Steele Coffey, Bandon, and Robert Cowan, Clonakilty, John Robinson, Esq., Principal of the Carmichael Schools, Cork, to Euphemia E., daughter of William Morris, Esq., architect and builder, Islay.

Torrens and Long—July 8, at St. Mary's, Youghal, by the Rev. Richard Jones, Robert Jameson, youngest son of the late John Torrens, Esq., Gortin, Aghadoey, county Londonderry, to Lizzie, daughter of Henry Long, Esq., Youghal, county Cork.

Hartley and Lascelles—July 8, at Kirby Wiske, the Rev.
John Thorneycroft, Hartley to Alice Margaret, second daughter of the Hon. George Edwin and the Lady Louisa Lascelles.

DEATHS.

Bean—June 12th, at Sunnyside, Mussourie, East Indies, after a brief illness, Mary, the dearly-beloved wife of Captain John G. De Lair Bean, Bengal Staff Corps, Adjutant 31th Native Infantry, daughter of the late J. R.
Middleton, Esq., and sister of Mrs. O'Donnell, Traugh Castle, aged 21 years.

Slade—On the 12th inst., at 12, Cecil-street, John, infant son of M. G. Slade, C.E., aged 10 days.

Ryan—July 7, at his residence, 32, Main-street, Tipperary, Mr. John Ryan, corn merchant, aged 38 years.

Kirwan—July 10, at Rathmines-road, Dublin, after two days' illness, Henry Kirwan, Esq., late of Knock House, Barnaderg, and Montpelier-terrace, Galway.

Burke—July 11, at 3, Great Denmark-street, Dublin, Wm.
Joseph Burke, Esq., younger son of the late P. M. Burke, Esq., J.P., of Danesfield, county Galway.

Hassard—July 10, at Parkmore, county Antrim, Robert Hassard, Esq., aged 75 years.

Howard—July 10, at Charleville, Blackrock, county Dublin, Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Francis John Howard, Esq.

Beresford—June 8, suddenly, at Deesa, Bombay Presidency, George Alexander Beresford, Esq., Lieut. 83rd (County Dublin) Regt., fourth son of the late Colonel G.
J. Beresford, R.A., Woodhouse, county Waterford.

Spencer—June 12, in New York, John Spencer, of Lanes-park, county Tipperary.

Armstrong—At Buenos Ayres, South America, Thomas Armstrong, Esq., aged 76 years, last surviving brother of J. P. Armstrong, Esq., Claremont, King's County.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

The Sisters of Mercy most gratefully acknowledge the receipt of £1 from Colonel the Hon. Charles S. Vereker, as foreman of the City Grand Jury.

The Treasurer of the Lying-in Hospital, Bedford-row, begs to acknowledge £1 from Sir David Roche, as foreman of the County Grand Jury.

Mrs. M. Hartigan, 46, George-street (where further subscriptions will be received), begs to acknowledge with thanks from Messrs. Bannatyne £1, Robert Hunt, Esq., J.P. £1, and — Cleary, Esq. (Messrs. Cannock and Co.), 10s., with several smaller sums towards the sufferers by the small-pox epidemic at Athenry.

FAIRS OF MUNSTER.

- Wednesday, 14th.—Limerick—Kilfenny-common. Tipperary—Cashel. Cork—Ballineen. Waterford—Lismore.
Thursday, 15th.—Cork—Bantry. Kerry—Castlegregory.
Friday, 16th.—Clare—Kildysart. Tipperary—Mullina-hone (pigs). Cork—Curras and Maun, Newmarket. Kerry —Dromkeen.
Saturday, 17th.—Cork—Skull.