

R. M. deposed, in reply to was in the excursion train did not hear any question would remain at Charle- train, and certainly was e and a half when he saw aw the guard go up towards , "Close the doors," and man I saw was in uniform guard Nolan); he was be- te, certainly not at his own whistle or bell; there might not hear either; the train than usual. m quite sure I heard the door." the first day that statement icted. that all the other witnesses ntinued—The carriage I had nd of the train; it was be- hat carriage that I saw the I had rather a narrow t into the train before me; 'Quaide was as heavy as I ether Mr. M'Quaide caught at; I felt a slight pull; the en open went back towards ot sure of that; I will not ot rung, or the steam whistle sounded. were two or three passen- guard raised his hand and "; I think it would be ut- n to have got into his van, ckly. t would not be true if the at his van when he said

d on the evening of the acci- ame carriage with the others; er the whistle sounded; the is a rush, and looking out he body in the next carriage, the platform; he made about n made a spring towards the appeared from view as the tness; witness turned to his , "M'Quaide is dead"; he w M'Quaide disappear under e looked out again the plat- e train was going fast and ide his best to keep up, so ed. armer, examined by Mr.

Molesworth—At the Quadrant, Mount Radford, Exeter, the wife of Captain St. A. Molesworth, Royal Artillery, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Macdonald and Gallagher—At the Cathedral, Cork, by the Rev. Canon Galvin, assisted by the Rev. R. Bodkin, uncle of the bride, J. F. Macdonald, Head English Teacher, St. Vincent's Seminary, Cork, to Rachel, daughter of Isaac Gallagher, Xanthus Cottage, county Clare.
 Major and Blake—May 13, at St. Mark's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Dr. Fuller, Robert Richard M'C., youngest son of the late Stephen Major, Esq., Solicitor, Granard, county Longford, to Lizzie, youngest daughter of A. E. Blake, Esq., wine merchant, Liverpool.
 Silver and Bodkin—May 13, at the Parish Church, Saint Marylebone, London, by the Rev. C. J. P. Eyre, M.A., rector, S. William Silver, Esq., of York-gate and Cornhill, London, to Sarah Constance, second daughter of J. J. Miles, Esq., and widow of Sir W. H. Bodkin, High-gate.

DEATHS.

Freud—At his residence, Boskell, county Limerick, on the 13th inst., Benjamin Bunbury Freud, Esq., J.P., aged 64 years.
 Marshall—May 11, aged 63 years, Hon. Mary Alice, widow of James Garth Marshall, Esq., and eldest daughter of Thomas, first Lord Monteagle, of Brandon.
 Van Eesbeck—On the 11th inst., at 34, Catherine-street, Ellen, the beloved wife of Thomas Van Eesbeck, after a protracted illness, borne with Christian fortitude, deeply, and deservedly regretted, aged 28 years.
 Doyle—May 13, at the residence of his mother, Commercial Hotel, Tipperary, James D. Doyle, late of her Majesty's Inland Revenue, aged 21 years.
 Barton—May 12, at Bundoran, Hugh St. George Barton, Captain 6th Rifles, fourth son of the late H. W. Barton, The Waterfoot, county Fermanagh.
 Pratt—May 12, at Drumsna, Jane Eleanor, wife of James Butler Pratt, Esq.
 Walmisley—May 13, at Mancetter House, 178, Belsize-road, Hampstead, Charles Thomas Walmisley, Esq., 2, Kenilworth-square, North, Rathmines, Dublin, for nearly 20 years the Deputy Grand Secretary of Freemasons in Ireland, aged 62.
 Charleton—May 11, at Tenby, Charlotte Charleton, the last surviving daughter of George Charleton, Esq., of Roxton, county Donegal.
 Aitchison—May 12, at his residence, 4, Devonshire-place, Portland-place, London, General Sir John Aitchison, G.C.B., Colonel of the Scots Fusilier Guards.
 Holroyd—April 5, at Rawul Pindee, India, Helen Maria Sophia, wife of Major Holroyd, Bengal Staff Corps, Director of Public Instruction in the Punjab.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

The Rev. J. F. Gregg thankfully acknowledges the following contributions for different charities:—J. Jameson, Esq., £5; Rev. W. F. Maunsell, £3; Miss Coddington, £1; Miss Howard, £1; Mr. H. A. Hamilton, £1.
 The Committee of Trinity Church thankfully acknowledge £33 12s 9d, contributed in Trinity Church on Sunday last, towards the funds of the church, including the following donations from friends unable to attend:—Mrs. Kennedy, £1; a Friend, £1; Mr. W. Hosford, 10s.

THE MOON—MAY.

Full Moon—Thursday, 20th, at 25m. past 8, morning.
 Last Quarter—Friday, 26th, at 5m. past 6, morning.

Dublin, Wicklow 1365, all paid Irish North West RAILW Dublin and Wick Great Southern a TEL Anglo-American, Alliance and Dul Do. for account Dublin Tramway MISCEI Ballast Office D Midland Great W Name days—29th 31st May and 16th Ju The Stock E closed on Whit-Mon

LONDON ST. Consols for Mon Do. for account New and Reduce FA Monday, 17th.—Li long. Clare—Bauro rary—Clogheen, Ten mona, Carrigaline, shaw (2 days), cort Tuesday, 18th.—C Suir, Fethard, Gold drum, Donaghmore, Wednesday, 19th kishen, Kilmichael. Kerry—Killorglin. Thursday, 20th.— magh, Drimoleague, Ballylongford, Ding Friday, 21st.—Th Cork—Cooldorkey, Saturday, 22nd.— Monthly Fairs are first Tuesday of ever day of every month of Cork on the first. A monthly marke on the second Tuesc Ennis Monthly F month. Mallow Monthly C of each month. Macroom Monthly Fairs falling on 2 On the following Mo Note.—In places day previous.

SHIP NE Arrived—Earnhe Joseph Love (ss), J rood (ss), Sweetlan Archangel, ballast Margaret, Sykes, B ballast; Anicitia, M'Kinnon, Glasgo oats.