

ked there is not a crime, not even that he might not commit. He saw issued lately that the amount of mo-drink last year was £3,000,000. This ble, and he meant, as far as lay in his t down such a state of things. There e a richer country in the world than e it not for the vice of drukenness.— ad decided to deal leniently towards but on condition that he should take id keep sober. Should you, he said, vio- will be arrested and placed in gaol until sions. You shall also enter into your zance in £50 to appear after ten days' risoner was then discharged. This e criminal business.

COURT OF LAND SESSIONS,
hip sat at two o'clock to hear claims and Act. Catherine Kelly (Tullig), id the Viscountess Frankfort de Mont- d others, respondents. Mr. Cullinan, y Mr. Hynes, appeared for the claim- Michael O'Loughlin, instructed by Mr. icitor, Dublin, for the respondents.— claim for £338 12s. 5d—£93 of which ged disturbance, and four years' rent; for reclaiming and manuring 7 acres of orting same into potato soil, which still unexhausted, at the rate of £10 acres, during claimant's tenure; £25 aing with three dressings of farm yard res and 30 perches of said lands, which grass, and which manure is still unex- the rate of £8 per acre; £23 15s. to 7 4 acres and 3 roods of meadowing ard manure to the value of £5 per acre; aining and improving 16 acres, which amencement of claimant's tenancy ex- bble land, and manuring same, which good heart at £3 per acre; £74 improve- ed on the lands. As a set off to this ondents, £298 15s. was claimed, viz.— cost of repairing dwelling house and want of care or attention, allow- walls to fall, doors and windows id taken away, and thatch, &c.; aining out offices, £7 14s. 6d. for drain- ury allowed to be done the land in hav- up by cars drawing manure; £16, to the lands by allowing lay to be sold ; £84 for damages done to the farm by ng on it the manure of twenty head d one horse for the last four years; mages by selling turf off the land ; half year's rent due up to November 36 16s 6d, cost of ejectment and pro- Mr. Jourdan and Mr. Mahon, engineers, ined as to the result of the exa- nade by each on behalf of the claim- pondents. Mr. Butler, the agent and the Court of Chancery, proved that y was made by his receiving a letter aimant stating that she had bought the f this farm from the former tenant, ng, and representing that she had paid and that she was satisfied to support Melville and Hayes—March 31, at St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Theophilus Campbell, rector of Lurgan, and Chaplain to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, Francis D. Melville, Esq., Bombay Civil Service, to Mary Louisa, fourth daughter of the late Hon. Edmund Hayes, third Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench in Ireland.

Boyd and Isaacs—March 31, at St. Luke's, Nutford-place, London, Robert, eldest surviving son of the late George Boyd, Esq., of Drumraney, Monte-a-Gronogue, county Westmeath, to Lydia, daughter of the late I. Isaacs, Esq., of 5, Dorset-square, London.
Fox and Knox—March 31, at St. Luke's, Chelsea, Henry, youngest son of the late Sir Charles Fox, to Emily Josephine, youngest daughter of the late Hon. John Henry Knox and the Lady Mabella Knox.
Vaughan-Hughes and Bennett—March 30, at St. George's, Hanover-square, London, James Vaughan-Hughes, Esq., Knight of the Order of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus of Italy, to Elizabeth Jane, widow of the late Francis Bennett, Esq.

DEATHS.

Fosbery—On Sunday evening, March 21, at Llanover, Weston-super-Mare, the residence of his mother, to the inexpressible grief of his bereaved relatives, William Henry Fosbery, Esq., second and only surviving son of the late Captain Francis Fosbery, H.E.I.C.S., aged 40, leaving a widow and three young children to mourn the irreparable loss.
Studdert—At Ballyheeman House, Quin, on April 1st, '75, William, only son of Thomas Studdert, aged 13 years.
Wilson—On Friday, 2nd inst., at Birkenhead, of diphtheria, Caroline Sibella, only daughter of Richard D. Wilson, late of Limerick.
Unthank—At John's-square, on March 25th, Charles Unthank, aged 66.
O'Loughlin—On the 1st inst., at 13, Taylor-street, in the 68th year of his age, Mr. Patrick O'Loughlin, universally regretted. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning.
Squires—On the 31st ult., at his residence, Friar-street, Cashel, George Squires, Esq., for over twenty years Vicar Choral of Cashel Cathedral, deeply regretted, and to the great loss of a large sorrowing family.
Guerin—At 15, Charlemont-mall, Dublin, aged 62 years, Miss Margaret Guerin, eldest daughter of the late John Guerin, Esq., Rathkeale, county Limerick, and sister to Mrs. Charles Carroll, Hyattsville, Prince George's County, Maryland, America.
White—April 1, at 37, Kildare-street, Dublin, Thos. Warren White, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, Cahirblonig, county Clare, aged 74 years.
Ring—March 29, at Templemore, county Tipperary, David Ring, Esq., aged 57 years.
Ashmore—March 31, at 9, Pembroke-road, Dublin, Eliza, widow of the late Major-General John Ashmore, R.M.
M'Namara—April 1, at his residence, 27, South-terrace, Cork, Alexander Foley M'Namara, Esq., J.P., aged 75 years.
Blake—March 30, at St. Anne's Hill Blarney, county Cork, Margaret, the beloved wife of P. J. Blake, Q.C.
Alexander—April 1, at Carne Rectory, county Wexford, the Rev. Dr. Alexander, last rector of Carne, in his 78th year.
Bingham—April 1, at his residence, 101, Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, John Bingham, Esq.
Turner—March 18, at Aden Captain Arthur Harry Turner, 25th King's Own Borderers, aged 31 years.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The Rev. J. F. Gregg thankfully acknowledges the following contributions for different objects:—Mr. William F. Burnley, £2 2s; Mr. John Maunsell, £2; Mr. and Miss Beauchamp, £1; Mrs. Graham £1; Mr. Bennett, 10s; Miss Brady, 10s; the Misses Tuthill, 10s; the Misses Dyas, 5s; per Miss D'Esterre, 7s; Miss Oake, 5s; Messrs. and the Misses Green, Greenmount, £1.

HUNTING APPOINTMENTS.

The Masters of Hounds will please send their Fixtures as early as possible.