

same and facetious stories to give a miracle to match digestible goat. Whether the goat that would bleat at the thief who kept him in silence I am not certain. "Ould ancient's judgement" in certain y St. Patrick; anticipating ne, "He would call no man 'convince heretics' turned heretics, into a flock of goats. A goat must have been put a gentleman called them. Hearing soon after tresspass and ravaging as Ormond in Tipperary, them which "Ould Nick" with his flock to escape him. too close in his rear to lie s half way up a range of ed the Devil's bit) and thus into the valley towards int overtaking him there, pastoral staff forced him to ot potatoe, and sure enough, om "Ould Nick's" interior ary rock of the mountain of Cashel. Now here is a Mr. Gubbins's—the sole dif- rties who performed them. ngel is preferable to the hot nk, even for choice, I would igestible goat in preference. " But to be serious I would an that facetious stories, do mition; they merely show peration in an untenable

main, dear sir, &c., J. G. B.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE,
April 7th.
writing my reply, which was s, to Mr. Gubbins's letter of read the series of letters terday's Chronicle, in support It was certainly time for attempt to rescue him from I find no fault with them rting a polemical discussion, ll be followed up by others. f taking part in it. Those rring turn of mind will find on doctrinal points in Dr. the Church; D. Newman's Dr. Manning's Papal Mist; and in an excellent work to New Testament. 's ideas as to fair discussion. I would be sorry to meet right worth ink and paper to Thomson—April 6, at 58, Belgrave-square, Rathmines, co. Dublin, the wife of Major Thomson, of a daughter.

Ehnegan—April 3, at Vesey-hill, Abbeyleix, the wife of Mr. James Flanagan, Clerk of the Union, of a son.
Guinness—April 7, at Burton Hall, Stillorgan co. Dublin, the wife of Henry Guinness, Esq., of a daughter.
Greig—April 4, at High Field, Haslemere, the wife of Capt. B. R. Greig, Royal Artillery, of a son.
Drummond—April 5, at 2, Bryanston-square, London, the Hon. Mrs. Edgar Drummond, of a daughter.
Bevan—April 6, at 72, Prince's-gate, London, the wife of Frank A. Bevan, Esq., of a son.
Howell—April 6, at 4, Park-village West, London, N.W., the wife of Arthur Howell, Esq. (Madame Rose Hersey), of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

FitzGerald and Finlay—April 6, at Christ Church, Leeson-park, Dublin, by the Rev. Maurice Neigan, D.D., Joseph George, son of George FitzGerald, Meenascorby House, Castlegregory, county Kerry, to Grace Anne, daughter of the late Isaac Finlay, Ballinbanogue, Arklow, county Wicklow.
Hone and Elwood—April 6, at St. Stephen's, Dublin, by the Rev. Harlow K. Elwood, A.B., assisted by the Rev. James H. Walsh, B.D., John Hone, of Ashton Park, Monkstown, county Dublin, to Annie Matilda, daughter of the late Rev. Edward Lloyd Elwood, rector of Killybegney, county Sligo, and granddaughter of the Rev. Jas. Elwood, Ballymore, county Roscommon.
MacLagan and Kerr—April 5, at St. Margaret's, Dunham Massey, Cheshire, David Douglas MacLagan, M.A., Edinburgh, to Mary Louisa, youngest daughter of the late Archibald Kerr, Esq., of Lancaster-gate, London.

DEATHS.

Sexton—On this morning, at Tivoli, Circular-road, very suddenly, James Sexton, Esq., J.P., county Limerick, much regretted.
Buchanan—On the 3rd instant, at Mountpleasant-avenue, Rathmines, Dublin, aged 66, Rebecca, widow of the late Rev. Thomas Buchanan, A.M., rector of Kibenny, diocese of Cashel.
Bolton—At Salt Hill, county Galway, in the 76th year of his age, Charles Paulet Bolton, Esq., eldest son of the late Marcus Bolton, Esq., M.D., of Ennis.
Bingham—April 5, at Lismany, Ballinacree, John Charles Robert Bingham, fourth Baron Chammorra, in his 50th year.
Mansergh—April 5, Elizabeth, widow of C. C. Mansergh, Esq., of Clifford, county Cork, in her 65th year.
Humphrey—April 6, at Connacht-place, Kingstown, county Dublin, Alexander John Humphrey, Esq., clerk of the Peace for the county Carlow for the last 10 years.
Cathrow—April 6, at Kenilworth-square, Dublin, Robert Cathrow, Esq., aged 49 years.
Bryan—April 4, at Charleville, county Cork, Mr. Richard Bryan, late of Merchant Tailors' Hall, Back-lane, Dublin.
Shawe—April 4, at Hatley, Torquay, General Charles A. Shawe, late of the Coldstream Guards, in his 55th year.
Phelps—April 3, at Carmo, Orléans, Joseph Phelps, Esq., of the Island of Madeira, in his 83th year.
Waller—March 1, at Coorg, India, accidentally drowned, George Frederick, son of the late James George Waller, aged 25 years.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Rev. J. F. Gregg thankfully acknowledges the receipt of the following contributions for different charities:—The Misses Coddington, £1; Rev. J. F. Bicker, £1; Mrs. Phayer, £1; Mrs. T. B. L. Stewart, £1; Mrs. Lloyd, 2s; Mrs. Graham, 1s; Mr. R. Russell, 1s; a Friend, 1s; Mrs. Wood, 1s.
The Rev. H. Jacob thankfully acknowledges £100 from Thom. Roxington, Esq., towards the erection of the chancel of St. Michael's Church; £3 from Miss O'Brien; 7s. George-Ednot, for the Church Sustentation Fund; also, 1s for the Parish School, and 10s from Miss Bartoell for the same object.
The Misses Oake thankfully acknowledge donations and contributions for their stall at the convent bazaars from Mrs.

ment
you
of lif

W
sing
whi
to