

NOTICE TO MESSRS. CHARLES BARRINGTON, CROKER BARRINGTON, and WILLIAM BARRINGTON.

A very large and influential meeting of the proprietors of the Glenstal estates and others in the neighbourhood was held on Sunday, the 8th instant, at the National School, at Murroe, for the purpose of making an arrangement as to the best mode of celebrating the joy they felt at the safe arrival from America of the National Regatta at Philadelphia of Messrs. Charles Barrington, Croker Barrington, and William Barrington.

On account of the shortness of the notice which the proprietors of this meeting was to be held the proprietors assembled on this occasion were surprised. It was intended at first to hold the meeting in the open air as no house in the village was large enough to accommodate one fourth of the number who attended, subsequently however the meeting was adjourned to the Boys' School, where it was held. Among those present were:—The Rev. Mr. Seymour, Rector; Mr. Duggan, C.C.; Mr. Joseph Gubbins, President of the Farmers' Club; Mr. John Ryan, Limerick; Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Mr. A. Harte, P.L.G.; Mr. James P.L.G.; Mr. C. K. Powell, Abington; Mr. Friend, Boher; &c.

The Rev. Mr. Seymour, seconded by Mr. John Ryan, Mr. Joseph Gubbins, and in a very eloquent and appropriate manner explained the object of the meeting. He said to offer in some substantial manner in a manner worthy of themselves, these gentlemen, the sons of their good landlord, returned from America, a testimony of their affection for the country. It was often unfortunate that his duty to his tenants was to see round about the country and denounce the wrongs and the tyranny of the landlord, but to-day he could testify in the name of his heart to the kindness and consideration of Mr. Barrington as a landlord. In travelling the country wherever you met a tenant farmer you were sure to meet with a happy and contented man. It was to the sons of this country that they were there then assembled.

The meeting concluded a long and eloquent speech in which Mr. Ryan, solicitor, said he was exceedingly pleased to be present at this great meeting considering that he was on a journey some distance from home. On his way through Boher he heard of the meeting for the first time, but he should be very far away from home and he would not endeavour to be present at the meeting when there was a compliment to be paid to the sons of Sir C. Barrington, and though he could not congratulate these gentlemen on a victory, yet they had met with a success to them the expression of their joy on their safe return, and which he
