

ould be made on Ascension Day. Testimonial. It was also stated that on would be made with the approval of Rev. Dr. O'Shea, at the gates of the holic Church, after both Masses. This ent was made without the consent of Dr. io is opposed to having collections of any up at the church gates. He expressed oval of such conduct, but stated at the that if a collection was made elsewhere n with this object, that not alone would ; coadjutors subscribe themselves, but d do everything in their power to make s. The unwise course followed by Mr. nds in this instance has prevented many in Rathkeale subscribing to the l.
