SANITARY STATE OF THE CITY.

The Mayor read a letter from the executive officer of the sanitary authority, with a resolution proposing that the Urban Sanitary Board should report to the Corporation that the sanitary state of the city was not satisfactory.

The Mayor asked the Board to have a letter read before them treating on the subject of the sanitary state of the city so that it might get publicity.

The Mayor said the proceedings at the meeting of the Urban Board went to show that the city was not in a satisfactory sanitary state.

The Mayor said he was not going to make a statement on the subject, as he believed that but little could be sufficient to bear him out. He should tell them that Mr. Forrest, the Mayor, admitted yesterday at the meeting that the city was not in a good sanitary state.
