

ould do something better than ing up the respectable score of l of their tenth wicket. The or their two innings, Cork 186, igs the Limerick had 142, thus ily 45 runs to win the game and ings to do it in. This gadding showed on the first day ought enough; but, though they did ould not reach that figure, and ough sheer pluck and gameness.
