

POTATOES.—14 loads of potatoes in market today. Prices:—5½d to 7d per stone.

1 load of turnips, 16s per ton.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

CORK BUTTER MARKET.—(Tuesday.)—Ordinary—1sts 130; 2nds, 116; 3rds 105; 4ths, 95; 5ths, 87; 6ths 00/ Superline 146—Fine Mild—1sts 133; mild 119; 2nds 00s Kers, 1sts, & 2nds, same as firkins; 3rds, 0s under; 4ths, 0s under; 5ths, 0s under. Fine kegs, 4s under; mild, 0s under. Firkins in market 1,132.

SALFORD CATTLE MARKET.—Monday—Less beef, more sheep. Best beef, 7d; seconds, 5½d to 6½d; sheep, 5½d to 7d; calves, 6d to 8d. Slow trade for everything.

BIRMINGHAM CATTLE MARKET.—Thursday—Good supply of beasts, trade brisker at 6½d to 7d per lb; sheep trade steady, 6d to 9d; pigs, good clearance, made 9s 3d to 9s 9d per score; porkers, 9s 6d to 10s 6d; rows, 8s to 8s 6d. Beef in few instances made 6½d per lb.

LIVERPOOL CATTLE MARKET.—Monday—There were 2,939 beasts and 9,430 sheep in market, including 117 Canadian cattle and 177 sheep. There was a large falling off in the supply from last week, buyers from the country not being so numerous, but a good trade was done and prices were maintained. Best beasts, 6½d to 7d; second, 5d to 6d. Irish sheep, 7d to 8½d; Scotch, 7d to 9½d per lb

BIRTHS.

Kelly—On the 26th October, at Ragoon, the wife of W. P. Kelly, Esq., Inspector General of Prisons, British, Burmah, of a son.

Massy—On the 19th inst., at Rocklow, County Tipperary the wife of Captain H. F. Massy, of a daughter.

Thackwell—On the 15th inst., at Aghada Hall, County Cork, the wife of Major J. E. L. Thackwell, of a son.

Waller—On the 17th inst., at the R.M. Repository, Woolwich, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel Waller, Royal Artillery, of a daughter.

Wheeler—On the 18th inst., at Allahabad, India, the wife of Stephen E. Wheeler, Esq., of a daughter.

Smith—On the 23rd of October, at Grahamstown, South Africa, the wife of the Hon. C. T. Smith, of a son.

Twiss—On the 20th inst., at Antibes, Alpes, Maritimes, the wife of Colonel Twiss, Royal Artillery, of a son.

Roxby—On the 18th inst., at Cromwell-houses, Southsea, the wife of Herbert Roxby, R.N., H.M.S. Baschante, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Jackson and Forsyth—This morning by the Rev. G. Wedgewood, George Jackson, Serjeant, R.A., to Emily Anna, fifth daughter of Mr. Robert Forsyth, Westland-street.

Palmer and Malcolm—On the 12th inst., at St. Jude's, Kensington, London, by the Rev. Henry Palmer, Rector of Sullington, and the Venerable Archdeacon of Huntingdon, Captain Edward Palmer, late Rifle Brigade, youngest son of the late Rev. George Palmer, Rector of Sullington and Parham, Sussex, to Mary Malcolm Douglas, of Cavers, Roxburghshire, only daughter of William Elphinstone Malcolm, of Burnfoot, Dumfriesshire.

Tunnard and Norman—On the 13th inst., in the parish church of Upper Fahan, by the Rev. John King, A.M., Rector of the parish, Christopher Claypen Tunnard, Esq., youngest son of the late Rev. John Tunnard, M.A., Frampton House, Boston, Lincolnshire, to Elizabeth Katherine, youngest daughter of Conolly Norman, of Fahan House, County Donegal, Esq.

DEATHS

Dillon—On the 19th inst., suddenly, of apoplexy, John F. Dillon, Manager of the Munster Bank, Drogheda.

Fitzgerald—On the 7th of October, at Forbes-street, Sydney, W. J. Fitzgerald, C.E., only son of the late John Fitzgerald, Architect, of this city.

De Lisle—On the 16th inst., at Guernsey, Marion, daughter of the late William Mackenzie, Esq., and widow of Captain De Lisle.

Mangan—On the 6th August at Wagga Wagga, New South Wales, Henry Latham, fourth son of the late Rev.

P. C. POUNDEN—15th Place, Entrance. Erasmus Smith Exhibition (£25 for five years)
 G. C. BAKER—18th Place, Entrance. 5th College Exhibition (£25 for two years), and an Erasmus Smith Statutory Exhibition.
 F. FRENCH—17th Place, Entrance. 4th College Exhibition (£25 for two years), and an Erasmus Smith Statutory Exhibition.
 J. REARDON—First Honour in Classics. First Honour in Modern History. Second Honour in English Literature.
 S. HEMPHILL—First Honour in Classics. Second Honour in English Literature. 7th of First Class at 'Little Go.' A Catechetical Prize. Senior College Exhibition (£25 for two years).
 H. FLEMING—First Honour in English Literature. Second Honour in Classics.
 W. HEWSON—First of First Honours in English Literature.

Of the six boys who entered College at the beginning of this Term, all gained high places and four obtained Exhibitions.

At the Intermediate Examinations, twenty-two boys from this School passed, of whom two gain Exhibitions, and ten passed with merit.

W. B. LINDESAY, LL.D.

Nov 25.

PRELIMINARY ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE NOBILITY GENTRY AND CLERGY TO PICTURE DEALERS.

A MAGNIFICENT COLLECTION OF ANCIENT AND MODERN PAINTINGS EMBRACING

High Class and Authenticated Specimens, BY AND AFTER

| | | | |
|-------------|---------------|---------|-------------|
| Caracci | Teniers | Claude | Rubens |
| Dolci | Teniers (jr.) | Poussin | Ostade |
| Ricci | Neefs | Rigand | Hondecoeter |
| Spagneletto | Bles | Vernet | Maas |
| Pannini | Cloques | Lebrun | Dujarde |

&c., &c., &c.

Old Cremona and other Violins, Antique Cabinets, Old Mezzo-tinto Engravings (periods), Etchings, Stipple, Line, and Royal Union Proofs, &c.

CHIEFLY IN MASSIVE FRAMES

WILL BE SOLD BY UNRESERVED AUCTION At the LARGE ROOMS, 51 GEORGE STREET (Adjoining the Wesleyan Chapel)

MR COLEMAN with instructions from owner, Edward Harold, Esquire, begs respect to announce that the above extraordinary beautiful collection will be submitted to public competition early next month.

Advertisements and descriptive catalogue appear in due course.

Nov 22.