

murder followed by the suicide of the has taken place about half a mile from of Mosside, which lies about midway allymoney and Ballycastle. The victim named James M Vicker and the was his nephew, Robert M Vicker. The ar to be briefly as follows:—A dispute at a very late hour on Wednesday night he nephew and uncle with regard to young M Vicker had been a medical two sessions and was being educated le, who, it would seem, was a man of
 as. The uncle had promised to get £20 bank in order to enable young M Vicker his studies this session. It so happened ld man did not keep his promise, and, y, the nephew went over to his uncle's Wednesday night and while there eatly enraged. He eventually struck n a violent blow with a hatchet causing mediate death. It is stated that two the deceased were present, but being firm they took no steps to reveal the the murderer remained in the house till ursday morning. On the constabulary ght from the Mosside station, a diligent made for young M Vicker, but he was to be found. His body was at length in a well close to the house. He had nself in head foremost. He could not more than twenty minutes in the well d. Life was, however, extinct. The old taken a deep interest in his nephew, and for his education at the Ballymoney school, and afterwards at College
