LIMERICK ATHENÆUM.

remained so, but be chose to throw it up in a way not flattering either to the Burgesses of the city or the Corporation. Now, for reasons best known to himself, he seeks to return to it. I really think that such a course of public action is trying with important interests, and ought not to be sanctioned by you.

Should you honour me by your selection, I shall use my best endeavours to control, within proper limits, the heavy taxation, and to aid and develop the general interests of the city.

Trusting that you will find it convenient to attend and record your votes in my favour,

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient Servant,
JOHN DUNDON.
