

financial and routine business was transacted, and a resolution passed to apply to the Corporation for the loan of £300 for the erection of six baths in the yard of the town hall. Additional street lamps were ordered to be erected after which the meeting concluded.

ETNIS UNION.

Henry Faircloth presided yesterday at the monthly meeting of the Etnis Board of Guardians, which was only attended by three other members, Messrs T. Frost, William Halpin, and Michael O'Connell.

A letter was read from the Treasury declining to accede to an application made by the guardians for the seed loan paid by four instead of two instalments.

A letter was read from the Local Government directing that the rate collectors should issue new surety bonds, to include the amount of the seeds loan; also a communication regarding the salary of the inspector of explosives to be paid out of the funds of the union.

Orders for the supply of clothing materials were considered, and declared in favour of three drapery firms.

The board adjourned at three o'clock.
