DEATH AT DURHAM.

A man, aged 22, a shoemaker, was being taken to Durham gaol for the purpose of being committed to the workhouse, Elizabeth Holmes, at 18th August. Marwood, who was the driver, entered the gaol at 7 o'clock and was the culprit who, about three minutes later, was led to the scaffold, accompanied by the governor, and the deceased perfectly resigned to his fate as he ascended the steps. He died at 10 o'clock, and without the least

MESSRS. DAVIES.

SURGEON DENTISTS.

20, LOWER SACKVILLE STREET, DUBLIN, (Established 1852).

BEG to notify to their numerous patients that one of the Firm will attend personally on the above dates and regularly in every month.

Messrs. DAVIES' system of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, protected by Her Majesty's Royal Letters Patent, surpasses all others for economy, durability, mastication, articulation, and natural appearance. Being indestructible, they never change colour or decay, and a written guarantee is given of the purity of the materials of every case made. They are worn with such ease and comfort, even over the most tender gums and sensitive stumps, that the wearer speedily forgets the deficiencies of nature have been supplied by art. Decayed Teeth rendered sound and use with White Ar-
