

James Hynes, v. P. Coleman. ff who is an attorney conducted his own Mr. Connolly defended. It was an ac-£10 brought to recover the value of a of legal documents his property, seized decree and given to be sold. Defendant the documents in court, which were plaintiff, and the process was dismissed.
 Hynes next sued Ald. Cleary for £12 13s. parcel containing wearing apparel, &c., seized and detained, his property. He parcel was sent to Cruise's Royal Hotel, to which was seized by Ald. Cleary. He said a bill to defendant for a debt, it was sent. He had nothing after the seizure, to buy shirts in Dublin. (a laugh).
 He denied the plaintiff's statement, he his bill. A parcel came to his hotel to a "Mr Hind," which plaintiff said himself. He had a decree against himself; he sent for the Sheriff and told him property of plaintiff's in the hotel. He Hynes take the parcel away, and when was placing it on a cart it was seized off for his decree. Plaintiff was well Limerick.

He was dismissed.
 The gentleman had a process against Mr.
 Hynes for £12 13s value of a quantity of wearing apparel illegally seized under decree at the railway terminus. The this case created much meriment in appeared that £5 worth of clothing had been left to the plaintiff at the time of seizure; and the court gave a decree for £1 costs; but the decree was given to be set off against another one Mr Hynes had against him, so Mr Hynes will get nothing. Mr Wallace appeared for Mr Connolly.
 The sessions concluded this evening.

At the Petty Sessions were held on yesterday magistrates present being Mr J. Christopher, presiding, Colonel O'Donnell, Weston, R.M., and Mr Patrick Frost.
