MR BRADLAUGH.

Soon after the Speaker had taken the chair in the House of Commons on yesterday afternoon, Mr Charles Bradlaugh calmly walked up the floor unaccompanied by even a solitary friend, and offered to the Clerk to take the oath of allegiance. He had the Bible in his hand, and the Clerk was in the act of administering the oath, when Sir H. Wolf interposed. The Speaker then requested Mr Bradlaugh to retire, and, turning on his heel, that member passed back to the bar and out of the House. Sir H. Wolf in continuing his
