

but he did not think they were now workenianism. He believed they were now ng in a perfectly constitutional movement, to give the people a firm possession and of the land (hear, hear), and defend their ry against landlordism and the like. He d to repel the idea as expressed by that rd defending his agent, as a cloak for them-that these people were discontented with-use, that they were rebels without cause, at from a spirit of discontent amongst the they were rising up against landlords and He wanted to repel this for he believed e people were discontented with their re-with the rackrenting agents and land-and he believed that it was the cause that m time to time goaded the people in insurary movements. He, therefore, wished to the cause fall back on the proper guilty (hear, hear).
 meeting adjourned.

INDIAN GOLD MINES.

consequence of the numerous enquiries with e to these properties which have been ad-to me since the announcement by the Gold Mining Company (of Glasgow) of the shing of quartz yielding 4 ozs to the ton.
 necessary to state for the information of westors in the South Indian, Indian Glen-dian Phoenix, and Indian Trevelyan Com-who have been influenced by my recom-ons thereof from time to time, that I he result as unexpectedly satisfactory and y promising for the four Companies re-ew days I hope to issue a "circular dealing h the subject: the importance of which ow beginning to be appreciated. In an-), however, I may state that my confithe future of these enterprizes is greater

BIRTHS.

- Goggin—On 18th inst., at Bonview Terrace, North Strand, Mrs Stephen Goggin of a son.
 Lyttelton—June 13, at Oxford, the wife of the Hon and Rev Arthur Lyttelton of a son, stillborn.
 Lee—June 12, at 74 Northumberland Road, Dublin, the wife of the Rev W. Lee, of a daughter.
 Shell—June 16, at Belgrave House, Clifton, the wife of P
 St Maur Shell, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

- Goodwin and Renmalow—On the 15th inst., at St Canice's Cathedral, Kilkenny, by the Rev G. W. Rooke, M.A., assisted by Rev B. J. H. Athley, M.A., James Goodwin, junr., of Limerick, to Jane, second daughter of Wm.
 Renmalow, of Kilkenny.
 Northcote and Farrar—June 14, at St Margaret's, Westminster, by the Right Rev the Lord Bishop of Durham, assisted by the Rev Professor Plumtre, D.D., and the Rev A. S. Northcote, brother of the bridegroom, the Rev J. S. Northcote, Rector of Upton Pyne, third son of the Right Hon Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart., M.P., to Hilda Cardew, second daughter of the Rev F. W. Farrar, D.D., F.R.S., Canon of Westminster, and Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen.

DEATHS.

- Christy—At New Quay, Galway, John H. Christy, Esq., J.P., youngest son of the late John Christy, Esq., Fort Union, Adare.
 Kenny—On the 17th inst., at No 3 Military Road, Mathew Kenny, Esq., late of Thomondgate, aged 76. R.I.P.
 Lloyd—May 15, at Tonghoo, British Burmah, aged 34 years, William, second son of the late Colonel J. Lloyd, B.A., C.B.
 Forrest—April 26, off Sandy Point, in the Straits of Magellan, Wm Carmichael Forrest, 1st Lieut her Majesty's ship Doterial, son of Captain Forrest, Chief Constable of Hamp hire.
 Wynyard—June 10, suddenly, at Brixton rise, London, Commander Thos. Montagu Mosley Wynyard, R.N., age 51.
 Hessman—May 21, at Ednam House, Ryde, Isle of Wight, Isabella Glencairn Hessman, widow of the late General Hessman, J.A., and daughter of the late S. Hawkins, Esq.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The Secretary Protestant Orphan Society thankfully acknowledges £1. donation to annual meeting collection, from Arthur Russell, Esq., per Rev B. Jacob.

FAIRS OF MUNSTER.