

London, 11.15

The House of Commons is still many of the reliefs having passed by several hours sleep.

London, 11.45.

carried on by Messrs O'Shaughnessy and Mr Biggar then rose in order of adjourning the house. He ordered by the Deputy-Speaker called him to order. Mr John Lubbock. Mr Gladstone entered before 11 o'clock.

Member for Durham) spiritedly in favour of the Irish party, and was opposed by Mr Connor Power.

He has been sitting for over twenty minutes and carried on the debate, and at last drew the word "impertinent" from Mr Gregory. He did so amid London, 1 o'clock.

The House of Commons is still sitting. Mr D Sullivan followed Mr Gladstone. He was twice called to order, and sat down. Mr Gill spoke in favour of the debate. It is stated in the House that the other side will give way, and the debate may extend for at least forty minutes. There is a large attendance of Ministers and vacated the chair at 1.30. Mr Parnell raised a question, that the Speaker could not order another sitting commenced.

ruled, and the debate is still going on. The House divided on the motion that the numbers were—For, 100. The debate was accordingly

Gould—On the 29th ult., at Rosedale, Union road, Clapham, the wife of E. Gould, O.E., of a daughter.
Hanrahan—On the 1st inst., at 8 Lower Mallow street, the wife of Alfred Hanrahan, of a son.
Barcroft—January 27, at The Glen, Newry, the wife of Henry Barcroft, of a son.
Stopford—January 28, at Bailieboro', County Cavan, the wife of E. George Stopford, of a daughter.
FitzGerald—On Jan. 31, at 7 Merrion square, East, Dublin, the Hon Mrs FitzGerald, of a daughter.
De Lapasture—Jan 27, at Caley Hall, Otley, Yorkshire, the wife of the Count de Lapasture of a son.
Talbot—Jan 27, at Wallaha, Ceylon, the wife of Gustavus A Talbot of a son.
Varker—Jan 26, at East Cowes, Isle of Wight, the Hon. Mrs Foley Varker of a son.

MARRIAGES

Eason and Saunders—Dec 13, at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev W. E. Ross, Alfred, fourth son of Charles Eason, of Dublin, to Janet Caruthers, eldest daughter of Gilbert Saunders, Esq., J.P., of Lorne.
Scrivner and Duke—Jan 27, at St Anne's Church, Birkenhead, by the Rev Andrew Knox, M.A., LL.D., Incumbent, J. A. Scrivner, B.A., LL.B., 23 Trinity College, Dublin, add Shrobb Lodge, Stoney Stratford, to Sarah Elizabeth (Lillie), second daughter of Richard Duke, Elerslie, Cloughton, Cheshire.
Day and Rochford—Jan. 31, at Dalkey Church, by the Rev. W. H. Kerr, Rector, assisted by the Rev. Mr Lucas, D.D., John Beauchere Day, Esq., of Marine Terrace, Kingstown, to Geraldine Isabella (Lily), only surviving daughter of the late Captain Rochford, and sister of the late Mrs Russell, of Kyle Park, County Tipperary, Ireland.

DEATHS.

Egan—On 31st January, Thomas Egan, Esq., at the residence of his brother, 25 Mallow street. Funeral will take place to-morrow (Wednesday) morning at 8.30.
Donovan—On the 26th ult., at her residence 33 Leeson Park avenue, Banelagh, Co. Dublin, Eliza Sophia Donovan, widow of the late Richard Hungerford Donovan, M.D., formerly of Kiltush, county Carre.
Keogh—On the 25th January, at Drumdoe, Boyle, the infant son of C. A. Keogh, Esq., J.P.
Perry—At Bellevue Place, Clonmel, on the morning of the 27th January, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late Samuel Perry, and sister of the late William Perry, of Woodroff, County Tipperary, Esq., aged 74 years.
De Lapasture—Jan 27, at Caley Hall, Otley Yorkshire, the infant child of the Count and Countess de Lapasture.
Bastable—Jan 1, in Paris, Mary Ann, widow of the late Henry Bastable, of Heathfield, Kinsale, in the 85th year of her age.

HUNTING APPOINTMENTS.

The masters of hounds will please send in their fixtures as early as possible.
Mr Furnell's Harriers will meet for Jan. and Feb., as follows:—
Thursday 3rd Feb. Crecora Cross.
Hour—12 o'clock sharp.
The County Limerick Hounds will meet for February as follows:—
Wednesday 2nd Manister.
Friday 4th Fortwilliam.
Monday 7th Hollycross, (Limerick and Bruffroad.)
Wednesday 9th Coolrus.
Friday 11th Castle Hawson.
Monday 14th Frankfort.
Hour—11 o'clock.

Gentlemen are most particularly requested not to ride over wheat or newly laid down ground.

HIGH CLASS

CHATEAU LAFITE
CHATEAU MARGAUX
CHATEAU MOUTON
CHILL
CHATEAU LEOVILLE
CHATEAU COS D'ES

Together with a choice of the most celebrated

The above Wines were bottled and in the case of the varieties bottled. Detailed Price Lists posted.

F. J.

GROCERS AND ITALIAN WARE STORES

July 6.

THE LONDON BROKEN-TEA HAS MORE THAN DOUBLE THE VALUE THAN ANY OTHER. IS LESS THAN HALF THE PRICE OF THE CHOICEST.

THE LONDON BROKEN-TEA selected solely for its high quality as the Choicest.

SOLD ONLY IN

ROBEY & CO. 25,

Nov 11.

IMPORTERS

THE "VICTORIA"

STEAM DYERS, CLEARING

The Victoria Dye Works are situated in the County of London, having a continuous ground