

The materials are the purest and most Wilson, Ph., D.F.S., truly excellent."—
the most agreeable
the skin I know."—
St. John's Hospital
ce for children."— Dublin. "When
mend it with entire uer Griffith, Senior oman and Children
nd ls. Refuse all

S. B. 41 PILLS a discharges from th
acquired or consti
the Back. Sold in mists and Patient any address for six Clarke. Consulting
Lincoln—Wholesale
ndon, and all the d per

BIRTHS.

Hickman—On the 5th inst., at Kilmore, Knock, Co Clare, the wife of Francis W. Hickman, J.P., of a son.
Col.—On the 5th May, at Carriganarra, Ballincollig, Co, Cork, the wife of Captain Cole, 3rd Dragoon Guards, of a son.
Hughes—April 27, at sea, on board H.M. Troopship Malabar, the wife of Surgeon-Major J. H. Hughes, M.D., of a daughter.
Donne—May 4, at Biggleswade, the wife of the Rev J. M.
Donne of a son.

DEATHS

Elmes—May 3, at his residence, 64 South Street, Reading, in his 34th year, William Henry Elmes, Surgeon R.N., youngest son of the late Rev Thomas Elmes, Rector of Killeely, county Clare, to the inexpressible grief of his wife and many friends.
Hart—Died on the 8th instant, at Abbey View House Killaloe, Mary the beloved wife of J. K. Hart, Esq., and only daughter of the late Captain James Taylor, R.N., late of Rock Abbey, Co. Limerick.
Kane—This morning, at 58 Mountjoy Square, Dublin, Thos. H. Kane, Esq., Solicitor, only surviving son of the late Richard Dean Kane, Esq., of Clanmart, Howth, Co, Dublin.—R.I.P.
Kenny—On the 8th of May, at 3 Ailesbury Road, Dublin, Thomas Staepool, only son of T. H. Kenny, Solicitor, aged 8 months.