

It is not every child who is so highly distinguished as to be considered worthy of having a two hours' discussion with reference to the important subject of its probable or improbable paternity...

Nothing is more indicative of the prestige of a powerful Conservative reaction throughout England than the results of North Lincolnshire Durham announced this afternoon...

The important office of Head-Constable of Liverpool has just been conferred upon Captain J.W. Bowyer, late of H.M. 8th Regiment...

On Thursday night, five piles of hay, on the lands of Mount-Catharine, were maliciously set on fire. It was the produce of about 21 acres of meadow...

This tournament came off on the Club ground on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday last. The weather being all that could have been wished for...

Harte, Mr P Knox, Mr Meehan, and others. Mr E. Kennedy, C.E. attended. The business transacted was purely a routine...

Miss Holmes beat Miss Boyse—4 to 6, 6 to 1 and 6 to 3. Third Round. Miss Holmes beat Miss Lysaght—6 to 4 and 6 to 2...

THE NATIONAL HUNT STEEPLECHASE COMMITTEE. A meeting of the members was held yesterday at Messrs H. Underhill & Co., Dublin.

Mr Widger's objection against Minerva.—We decide that the decision of the stewards of the Bath race is reversed, and the Handicap of £49, run for the 4th of May, 1881, be awarded to Ned Rose...

THE LIMERICK RACES. The following are the entries for the several events: FIRST DAY. The Tradesmen's Plate of 200 sovs.—Fair Wind, aged; Nightfall, aged...

ADARE LAWN TENNIS TOURNAMENT. This tournament came off on the Club ground on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday last. The weather being all that could have been wished for...

Rev L.H.O'Brien (15) beat T.W. Browning (15) and 15 (15) to 6, 6 to 3, and 6 to 3. W.D. Mansell (15) beat T. Atkinson (15) 6 to 1 and 6 to 0.

THE ALLEGED HOMICIDE NEAR FREDRICK-STREET. On yesterday evening at half-past three o'clock Mr McCarthy, R.M., and Mr S. Hastings held an examination in custody of the prisoner Thomas Hackett...

ing about half-past 10 o'clock, and saw no light in the room; the deceased was sitting at her door. She saw her husband take a small box, take a pinch from it, replace it in her bosom, and wipe her face with her handkerchief.

Another witness proved to seeing deceased throw water out of her house between 7 and 8 o'clock. She was questioned about a row she had with a Mrs Gibb that Sunday.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL. Since our last published list of the visitors to St. Mary's Cathedral, the following were among the numbers who inspected that venerable edifice...

On this evening there was a meeting of the magistrates attending the Liberty Petty Sessions held in the judge's room of the County Court...

Did he make any statement before the body was taken out of the barrel? He said he had been looking for him from half-past five o'clock on the previous evening...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I reside in the city. I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

ing about half-past 10 o'clock, and saw no light in the room; the deceased was sitting at her door. She saw her husband take a small box, take a pinch from it, replace it in her bosom, and wipe her face with her handkerchief.

Another witness proved to seeing deceased throw water out of her house between 7 and 8 o'clock. She was questioned about a row she had with a Mrs Gibb that Sunday.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL. Since our last published list of the visitors to St. Mary's Cathedral, the following were among the numbers who inspected that venerable edifice...

On this evening there was a meeting of the magistrates attending the Liberty Petty Sessions held in the judge's room of the County Court...

Did he make any statement before the body was taken out of the barrel? He said he had been looking for him from half-past five o'clock on the previous evening...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I reside in the city. I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

ing about half-past 10 o'clock, and saw no light in the room; the deceased was sitting at her door. She saw her husband take a small box, take a pinch from it, replace it in her bosom, and wipe her face with her handkerchief.

Another witness proved to seeing deceased throw water out of her house between 7 and 8 o'clock. She was questioned about a row she had with a Mrs Gibb that Sunday.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL. Since our last published list of the visitors to St. Mary's Cathedral, the following were among the numbers who inspected that venerable edifice...

On this evening there was a meeting of the magistrates attending the Liberty Petty Sessions held in the judge's room of the County Court...

Did he make any statement before the body was taken out of the barrel? He said he had been looking for him from half-past five o'clock on the previous evening...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I reside in the city. I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

ing about half-past 10 o'clock, and saw no light in the room; the deceased was sitting at her door. She saw her husband take a small box, take a pinch from it, replace it in her bosom, and wipe her face with her handkerchief.

Another witness proved to seeing deceased throw water out of her house between 7 and 8 o'clock. She was questioned about a row she had with a Mrs Gibb that Sunday.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL. Since our last published list of the visitors to St. Mary's Cathedral, the following were among the numbers who inspected that venerable edifice...

On this evening there was a meeting of the magistrates attending the Liberty Petty Sessions held in the judge's room of the County Court...

Did he make any statement before the body was taken out of the barrel? He said he had been looking for him from half-past five o'clock on the previous evening...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I reside in the city. I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...

De Robert Barry, examined by Mr Leahy—I was called into Hackett's half-past 10 o'clock, and was accompanied by Constable Treacy...