ION" BARMAID CASE.

on the body of the ill-fated whose melancholy suicide at near Hyde Park, a few weeks considerable comment, was resumed at Ponsonby, B.M. (retired) led her to leave her situation allowing her £25 a month as a witness. Upon being Ponsonby stated that he had shortly before leaving England his return from Algiers in the acquaintance. She dined at the restaurant on the 25th of that month. He had never before met her, but sent a card to give up her situation. Later, she came to his hotel, and had her situation, and had advised her some, and advised her previously taken, and that they did not get on well. He talked of some one else. He was in Wales when he died, and came to town not suffering from disease. He further said he was to pay her £25 per month.

Malloy Monthly Cattle Market is held on the first Tuesday of each month.
