

RE CORRESPONDENT.)

weeks comparative quietness locally, so far as seizures of land; but the ill-timed speech which he alluded to the gentlemen of the Property Defence, led here as being in "hot pursuit, the midnight raider, the locality," appears to have of the law again in motion. of Captain W J Lloyd, the led to be in "pursuit," has given to the above quotation, and, furnish another opportunity for comments; and this seizure will "another midnight raid, and dealings of a law-abiding people." so secret, that no one seemed sure would be attempted, and to your correspondent, as well others, to see the cattle with in the village this morning, the constabulary, under the constable Borbige, accompanied and his party, who were all well at 3.30 a.m., and proceeded across downland of Garrison, situated Old Pallas. The surprise was a full seizure was the result, and by 7.30. Captain Lloyd, acting, held a sale in the afternoon, he bought in on behalf of the amount of the debt and costs is most remarkable feature in no one was present to bid on record, Mr Lloyd Apjohn, and the first occasion of a suc-

Price and 1199—mid 1129; 2nds 1119; 3rds 1049; 4th 10009, Firkins in market 3112.

BIRTHS.

Coppinger—Sept 21, at Midleton Lodge, Co Cork, the wife of T S Coppinger, Esq, JP, of a stillborn son.
 Jackson—Sept 21, at 10 Alma Terrace, Monkstown, the wife of Henry Vincent Jackson, JP, Inane, Roscrea, & Mountjoy Square, of a daughter.
 Callan—Sept 21, at Dowdstown, Ardee, the wife of Phillip Callan, Esq, of a daughter.
 Lamb—Sept 19, at Wheldrake Rectory, near York, the wife of the Rev. B Lamb, of a daughter.
 Wall—Sept 2, at 54 Rathmines Road, Dublin, the wife of Thomas J A Wall, Esq, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Rich and Gabbett—Sept 21, at St John's Church, Woolwich, by the Rev J O Bent, M A, assisted by the Rev. R A Corbett, MA, Chaplain to H.M. Forces, Charles Carroll, Captain Royal Artillery, second son of Colonel H Rich, late Royal Engineers, to Fanny Amelia J B, only daughter of the late Major Robert Poole Gabbett, Royal Artillery.
 Dooly and Mehan—Sept 13, at the Roman Catholic Church Kinnetty, Dublin, Charles Dooley, Bridget St, Dublin, to Maggie, only daughter of the late John Mehan, Kinnetty, King's County.
 Woodgate and Barton—At Ardracavan Church, Navan, by the Most Rev Lord Plunket, Bishop of Meath, uncle of the bride, Arthur G K Woodgate, to Sylvia, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Henry and the Hon Charlotte Barton.

DEATHS.

Maunsell—Sept 22, at Newborough, Suddenly, of disease of the heart, Mary widow of George Meares Maunsell of Ballywilliam, in this County, in her 85 year.
 Riordan—Sept 22, Clearagh, Ellen, wife of Michael Riordan, in the 78th year of her age.
 Horn—Sept 18, at Stanhope Gardens, South Kensington London, Mary Lambton, wife of R Horn, aged 57.
 Parkinson—Sept, at 19 his residence, Westwell, Streatham Common, London, S.W., General Charles Frederick Parkinson.
 O'Daley—Sept 17, Helen Anne, child of John O'Daley, Esq, O'Daley's Bridge, Co Meath.

LOWER SHANNON SAILINGS—SEPTEMBER
 FROM LIMERICK FROM KILRUSH

Monday 26th 8 a.m. Monday 26th 3.15 p.m.

DESCRIPT

The above Premises 18th January, 1872, 1872, at the very low the last 3 years the Spirit Merchant has The Premises contain:—Drawing-rooms, Bedrooms, and Kitchen Range.

The Shop is large complete, has a large and an excellent und situated in a good position commanded a brisk trade.

Water is laid in Store, and Kitchen, expended upwards of to the roof of the hot

N.B.—The Premises consent and wish of possession will be given.

For further particulars apply to

MICHAEL I
 Suffolk-st
 Auctioneer

Sept 24.

LIMERICK

The Annual Gene will be held in the NEUM, on THURSDAY 8 o'clock.

Business: To receive Accounts; and to elect for coming Session.