

The Press Association representative met Mr. [Name], the American Minister, at 10 o'clock this [Day], and ascertained from him that in [Connection] to the telegrams which he had sent to [Name] Majesty and the Prince of Wales, a third one [Name] forwarded to Earl Granville with reference [Name] a future of Guiteau, the assassin. Mr Lowell [Name] opinion that being a native of Columbia he [Name] be dealt with by the law there.

At night the following telegram was received from the Prince of Wales:—"We are concerned [Name] from last telegrams that the President's [Name] is so precarious, and trust for better news. The following is the official telegram which was [Name] telegraphed last night from Longbranch at the [Name] hour, namely, between 10 and 10.30:—"The chill of last evening left him he was [Name] weak indeed. His pulse became more [Name] faint and feeble than at any time since he [Name] recovered from the immediate shock of the wound, [Name] his general condition was more alarming. [Name] During the day his system has reacted to some [Name] extent and he passed the afternoon and evening [Name] peacefully. At this hour he is resting quietly, [Name] no disturbance is expected during the night. [Name] There has been however no gain whatever in [Name] his strength, and there is therefore no decrease of [Name] vitality."

—MACVEAGH."
A few minutes after receipt of this telegram [Name] from [Name] came the following:—"The President [Name] died.—WAYNE MACVEAGH."
Mr Lowell states that the change of presidency [Name] will be dealt with by the law there.

Standard Cattle Market—(this day)—Best Beef 7 1/2, second 7d; Sheep 7 1/2; Lamb 8d to 10d; Calves 5d to 9d; Slow trade for sheep, brisk sale for calves. Best 5900, Sheep 10,000. Calves 50.

BIRTHS.

Faussett—Sept 10th, at Waterford, the wife of the Rev Charles Faussett, of a daughter.
White—Sept 17, at Abbaylands, Killiney, County Dublin, the wife of Henry K White, J.P., of a daughter.
Curtis—Sept 16, at Berwick on Tweed, NB., the wife of Capt F H T Curtis, the King's Own Borderers of a daughter.
Woods—Sept 11, at Larkfield, Maidstone, the wife of the Rev W F Woods of a son, who survived his birth but a few hours.

MARRIAGES.

Lubbock and Herschel—Sept 15, at the parish Church Hawkhurst, by the Rev Canon Jeffreys, Nevill Lubbock Esq. of Leasons, Chislehurst, third son of the late Sir John W Lubbock, Bart to Constance Ann youngest daughter of the late Sir John F W Herschel, Bart, of Collingwood, Hawkhurst.
Medcalf and Stuart—Sept 19, at Ormond quay, Presbyterian Church, by the Rev Samuel Prenter, William, eldest son of John Medcalf, Athlone, to Helen Mary, second daughter of William Stuart, Blackthorns Co Dublin.
Bradford and Bradford—Sept 19, at St Mark's Church, by the Rev C K Strong M A, Louis K Bradford, 3 Newbridge Avenue Sandymount, third son of the late Samuel Bradford, Colonel, to Ruby, only daughter of the late John Bradford, Dresden, Saxony.

DEATHS.

Russell—At 13 Military Place, on the 20th inst. Johnston Russell Esq, after a short illness. Funeral to leave at 8 a.m. on Thursday morning for St Mary's Cathedral.
McGrath—On the 17th inst. Mary Josephine, aged 3 years, the interesting only, and much loved child of David McGrath, Upper Wm Street, Limerick.
Purcell—On the 19th inst, at his residence Lower Henry St, Mr John Purcell, very much respected.
Radcliff—Sept 13, in London, Joseph only son of the late Joseph Radcliff, QC, LL.D, 51 Upper Mount Street, Dublin, and grandson of the late Right Hon John Radcliff, Judge of the Prerogative and Consistorial Court, Ireland.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Mrs Carey Barrington's Hospital, acknowledges, with thanks, seven brace of rabbits from C B Barrington, Esq, J.P, also a quantity of vegetables from Miss Delmege, Castle Park, for the use of the patients in hospital.

LOWERSHANNON SAILINGS—SEPT 18
FROM LIMERICK TO KILBARRA