

whereabouts of Lefroy. There is a detective left in Scotland Yard, busily engaged in discussing the facts and information that come from all parts of the country. Lefroy is well known to many private individuals in the police of these districts, but at Wallington, Croydon, and other parts of London known to many private individuals of the police of these districts, he is getting hold of as many of them to act as detective auxiliaries. American police have also been in contact with. Up to one o'clock this morning he was in custody. It has been ascertained that the man thought to have been him, who was arrested at Rottheham last night, is the same man who has resided in the town many years. It has been received this morning that the man which has led to the despatch of a man to a town ten miles from London has been discovered that Lefroy has been discovered that Lefroy has been discovered that Lefroy has communicated with his friends. At ten o'clock this morning at the investigation Department, Scotland Yard, the Association was informed that the man which had been received this morning that the man Lefroy had been arrested. It is the hope of the Detective Department to discover his whereabouts.

ARREST OF LEFROY.

bacon pigs 10s 9d.

BIRTHS.

Vansittart—June 23, at Wilton House, Farnham, the wife of Capt R. A. Vansittart, 7th Dragoon Guards, of a son.
Lovat—June 25, at Beaufort Castle, the Lady Lovat of a daughter.
Lewis—June 21, at Maidstone, the wife of the Rev George A. Lewis of a son.
M'Gann—At Mysore, India, on the 30th May, the wife of Surgeon Major T. J. M'Gann, I.M.D., of a daughter.
Wylie—On the 26th June, at Kérilworth House, Rathmines, the wife of Rev C. B. Wylie, LL.D., of a son.

MARRIAGES

Wedgwood and Elliott—June 30th, in the Methodist Church, Ballinasloe, by the Rev F. Elliott, assisted by Rev J. S. McDade, Rev George R. Wedgwood, to Elizabeth, second daughter of Alexander Elliott, Esq., Ballinasloe.
Kingsley and Shields—June 28, at St Peter's Church, by the Rev Hugh Gelston, A.M., rector of Enniskeen, assisted by the Rev Thomas Good, B.D., incumbent of Sandford, the Rev Charles Kingsley, A.M., son of the late Major Kingsley, formerly of the 9th Veteran Battalion, to Mary Letitia, only daughter of the late William Shields, Poles House, county Meath, Esq.
Mackinnon and Munro—June 18, at St Mary Abbott's Kensington, Surgeon Major Hy Wm. Alexander Mackinnon, A.M.D., to Dora Jessie, second daughter of Surgeon General W. Munro, C.B.

DEATHS.

O'Connell—On the 27th inst., at Adare, after a long illness. William O'Connell, ex-Head constable B.I.C., aged 69 years; deeply regretted by his sorrowing wife and family. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."
Woodall—June 24, at his residence, Mostyn Mere, Scarborough, Wm Edward Woodall, in his 72nd year.
Weldon—At 3 Elgin road, Anthony Stuart, infant son of the Rev Lewer B. and Olive Weldon.
M'Farquahar—June 28, at Leam Villa, Willes road, Leamington, the Rev Wm Pitt M'Farquahar, aged 76 years.
White—June 27, at residence, 53 Prince's gate, London, John White, Esq., of Arddarroch, Dumbartonshire, N.B.
Davis—June 28, at 7 Newbridge avenue, Sandymount, Alicia, youngest daughter of the late Richard Davis, Esq., Marrion, Co Dublin.