

...ve it struck out.
 to Mr McInerney he said he denounced murder repeatedly from the altar, and on way the day he was shot and several frequently. The people in his district
 He said he explained to Mr Clifford M., that his people were not guilty of ges. They were themselves threatened. agitation they did not refuse to pay formed before the Land League a society to preserve law and order. a great number of men arrested, and gentleman wrote to Mr Clifford Lloyd, released a number of them. He then the shooting at Constable Wills, and the matter occurred on the 13th Feb., it was the last outrage in his parish.
 t Sunday he called the people together and he denounced outrages in the language. The people were about to police, and he took their weapons from stigator thought the rev. gentleman rving the object he had in view by the people were about to attack the t adjourned at 5 o'clock until 10 morrow.

THIS DAY.
SPECIAL TELEGRAM.
 Tulla, 7 o'clock.
 zhan, Q.C., continued the investiga-he claims under the compensation the Prevention of Crimes Act. The were those of Constable Wills forrived while protecting Mr Wilford orary Resident Magistrate, and Mrs widow of Michael Moroney, mur-ring paid his rent. The Court con-cearing of the applications to-day, ions from persons to be exempted ation will be taken up to-morrow.

leman from Birkenhead who created e by his loyal outcry at the Parnell
 'ork on Sunday evening, and pro-ed revolver, was yesterday brought agistrates. By his solicitor he ext for having given expression to erts on a wrong occasion, and was 20 fine for having a revolver in a istrict without a licence. hy Harrington, secretary of the gue, has been asked to permit him-in nomination for the representaunty Westmeath, in the event of t of Mr Gill, M.P.

the courtmartial upon Commander Heron, of the ship Clyde, was resumed to-day at Portsmouth, for the sixth time, when evidence was given as to the quality of fir wood supplied to the vessel, it being stated that inferior wood had been supplied until July.

BIRTHS.

Baker—On Sunday, the 17th inst., the wife of Edward Baker, 8, George-street, of a daughter.
 Murphy—Dec. 12, at 42 Lower Leeson-street, Dublin, the wife of J. Murphy, Esq., Q.C., of a son.
 Atkins—Dec. 17, at 57 Mountjoy-street, the wife of P. J.
 Atkins, of a daughter.
 Kilkelly—Dec. 17, at Ballinagard, Roscommon, the wife of John M. Kilkelly, Esq., R.M., of a daughter.
 Smith—D. c. 16, at the Lodge, Cahin, the wife of R. Edward H. Smith, of a son.
 Nugent—On the 15th instant, at Dublin, the wife of the Hon. Richard Nugent, of a son.
 Paget—On the 14th inst., at Newcastle-on-Tyne, the wife of Captain Alwyn B. de B. V. Paget, Durham Light Infantry, of a son.

MARRIAGES

Murphy and Newman—Dec. 12, at Mamhead, by the Rev
 E. Chatterton Orpen, Major P. Murphy (late 5th Dragoon Guards), son of P. E. Murphy, Esq., of Ballinacloon, county Westmeath, to Lily Lydston, daughter of Sir L. Newman, Bart., of Mamhead, Devon.
 Lawlor and Martin—At Rostrover, Herbert James, second son of John H. Lawlor, Ballymena, to Mary, second daughter of the late Robert Martin, and niece of the late John Martin, M.P.

DEATHS.

Baker—On Sunday, the 17th instant, to the inexpressible grief of her sorrowing family and friends, the beloved wife of Edward Baker, 8, George-street, Limerick.
 Fitzgerald—Dec. 15, at the Glebe, Connor, county Antrim, Anne Elizabeth, wife of the Rev Canon Fitzgerald, and daughter of the late William Whitaker, M.D., F.R.C.S.I., Ballina, Esq.
 Butler—Nov. 10, at Calcutta, after a lingering illness, James Bagshaw Butler, Esq. (late H.M.I.N.), son of the late Rev Wm. Butler, M.A., Prebendary of Cloyne Cathedral, Rector and Vicar of Ballycolyma and Killathy, county Cork.
 Brady—Dec. 13, at his residence, Glenna Cottage, Raheny, Mr James Brady, aged 90.
 Ashbrook—On the 14th instant, at the Castle, Durrow, Queen's County, Henry Jeffrey Flower, Viscount Ash-brook, aged 53 years.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Archdeacon Hare returns thanks to Dr Tom Gelston for 10s for the poor of St. Munchin's Parish.
 The Dean of Limerick acknowledges with thanks the following contributions to the poor fund of St. Mary's:—A friend, £5; do., £5; Mrs John Mackern, £1; Dr Gelston, £1; Dr Thomas Gelston, 10s.

HUNTING APPOINTMENTS.

County Limerick, Hunt (M. J. Gubbins').
 Wednesday, 24th, ... Ballygarry.
 Friday, 2nd, Ballincrane Station, 11.30 o'clock.
 Wednesday, 27th, ... Creco's Cross.
 Friday, 29th, ... Rockhill Cross.
 Saturday, 30th, (By-Day) ... Knockany.
 Hur—11 o'clock.
 The Lemonfield Harriers w ...
 Thursday, 21st, ... Sheehan's Cross.
 Hour—12 o'clock.