

river of the man car between Killybeggy v Ross has been attacked by several men omastown. He succeeded, however, in g in safety with the mails. The object of ilants is supposed to have been to possess ves of writs of ejectment which they bro be contained in letters in the mail bags. l be remembered that a short time ago olverton was blackballed when he sought on into the Royal Yacht Squadron. reasons were assigned, but the ow goes that the true reason was, that the ord had somewhat incautiously allowed it nown that he intended to take the Prime r on a cruise. Mr Gladstone, it appears, yet found favour in aristocratic yachting

Pettigo petty sessions yesterday, before Burton and James McCullagh, Esq, an ex-nary case came up for hearing. Hea-ble Ballintyne, Drumahaire, County Leiprosecuted a Mr William Beatty for staling eep. It appeared that a Mr Mair sold his nd stock at Pettigo to Mr Beatty who gave bill of sale on this and another farm and as a mortgage, promising to pay the money terest by instalments. The money was not and Mr Mair sold the stock, buying over eep himself, leaving them on the farm. On ght of July 13th. Mr Beatty came and took the 700 sheep, and was bringing them to ounty Sligo when he was arrested. The case nt on for trial.

BONAPARTISM IN FRANCE—The August session e Conseils-Généraux opened on Tuesday in t every department of France. The proceed-appear to have given rise to few incidents y of notice; but an exception must be in the case of the sitting of the Conseilral of the Correze. It seems that M. Vacher, epublican Deputy, has been for some time systematically attacked by a Bonapartist, is also a Councillor-General, in the columns e Correzien. Meeting him at the Assembly, acher signalled to his enemy to leave the and have a short talk with him, and as he not reply, he stepped up to him and, touch-aim on the collar of his coat, repeated his ation. The Bonapartist turned suddenly d bringing his umbrella into violent conwith M. Vacher's eye, which, it is affirmed, been destroyed. The sitting was, as might be believed, promptly suspended.
