came out of the horse first, Edwards closely following me. We walked separately until we came to the cross at the school. We joined each other there, and came stross the fields. He did not see duceased, nor did welsight him on our way boine. On reaching the house we found one of our men, Mitchell, in it. We saked Mitchell if Roache had returned. Mitchell, ands some reply which I forget. He said he might have forgotten something and returned to Limerick.

Mr Carter, S.I.—Did you see Roache at any time from the time he left McElliquott shouse until you saw him dead the next morning?

Witness—No.

Major Rolleston—Did you say at any time that you knew where he was?

Witness—Yes. I vaid he might have gone up to Tom Hayes. We could not get anything to buy anywhere. We were boyothed all ever the whole country. The people were very friendly towards us.

Were you in the habit of going out at night? Witness—There was never one of us out after sunsef. Major Rolleston—How long are you here?

My incass—There was never one of us out after sunsef. In the country is the proving the bowlers and the words are not builting. Mr Micathy—How you have you were you means about E-ache's absence did any person remark; that he might have gone to play cards somewhere?

Witness—No.

Were you neasy about him?

Witness—No. Meloy to think he had met with foul play?

Witness—No. Meloston—Why?

Witness—No. Major Rolleston—What timedid you go to bed?

Witness—Early.

Who was on wath? between tright-and; twelve o'cle.k?

Witness—Mitchell.
