

Limerick: Allmallock, two days; and, horses. Crane.
Newtownmalbay, Cork: Skibbereen.

which
be ap-
n fuel,
Ryan,
ttee to
ev. D. essary
work-

BIRTHS.

Shaw—On 16th June, at Roxborough, county Limerick, the wife of Alec W. Shaw, of a son.
Alexander—June 16th, at 8 Eden Terrace, the wife of Edward Alexander, of a son, Kirby—June 14, at Mount View, Cork, the wife of Michael Kirby, of a daughter.
Dunlop—June 11, at 11 Norwood Terrace, Southsea, the wife of Commander Hamilton Dunlop, R.N., of a daughter.
Swinton—June 15, at Lee House, Barnstaple, the wife of Commander E. H. Swinton, R.N., of a son.
Jennings—June 14, at Portnashangan Rectory, Mullingar, the wife of the Rev. John A. Jennings, A.B., of a son.
Young—June 15, at 14 Rutland-square, Dublin, the wife of Capt. Young, Bombay Staff Corps of a son.

H
3 p.m.
3 p.m.
3 p.m.
3 p.m.
sailing
8 a.m.
8 a.m.
8 a.m.
8 a.m.
11 a.m.
2 p.m.

MARRIAGES.

Evans and Hunt—June 13, at St. Paul's Church, Onslow-square, London, by the Rev. W. H. W. Peplie, Francis Myddleton Evans, son of E. Myddleton Evans, Esq., of Llwynbarried House, Radnorshire, to Ada Bertha, daughter of Colonel Hunt, 3 Onslow Gardens, London.
Brage and Warrington—June 14, at Strotton Church, near Dorchester, William H., son of the late Colonel Brage, of Sadorow, Dorset, to Isabel G., daughter of the late Captain Warrington, 3rd Dragoon Guards.
Dashwood and Lord—June 12, at the British Embassy, Paris, Arthur G. F., son of the late Mr George A. C. Dashwood, of Wherstead Park, Suffolk, to Caroline I., daughter of the late Capt. Arthur O. Lord, 72nd Highlanders.

alarm-
should irregu-
s should states of impaired instruct-ng more harmless
the best ng fruits
branging
gh their angers

DEATHS.

Harvey—On the 13th June, Geraldine O'Moore, daughter of Richard H. Harvey, Esq., and granddaughter of the late Colonel Vandeleur Crough, of Cahirbane, county Clare, in the 12th year of her age, at Hermon's Hill, Pembrokeshire.
Maunsell—On the 15th inst., at Glenbrook House, Glenbrook, county Cork, Edward Maunsell, aged 77 years.
Teskey—Saturday, 17th inst., after a long illness, borne with Christian patience, Eliza, the beloved wife of Mr James Teskey, of Rose Cottage, Adare.—Funeral to leave for Adare Cemetery, at 12 a.m., Monday, 19th.
Gregg—June 11, at his residence, Vansittart House, Greenwich, the Rev. John Gregg, M.A., vicar of St. Nicholas, Deptford, son of the late John Gregg, D.D., Bishop of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross, aged 50 years.
Kirby—June 15, at Mount View, Cork, Geraldine, the dearly loved wife of Michael Kirby.
Hunt—June 15, at New Ross, Dianthus Vane (Bussie), aged four and a half years, only son of the Rev W. Hunt.
Murphy—June 16, at Belfield Park, Drumcondra, Wm. Murphy, Mus. Sac., T.C.D., late organist and music master, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin.

stomach, £100 will
for any-Bitters.

on, Bron-
Medicine
Austin
p. "We safe and
d. there is