News was received in London yesterday that Mr. Frank Byrne was to sail from Havre, accompanied by Mrs. Byrne, for New York. It was also stated Walsh would accompany him, the French Government have resolved, on the ground of insufficient evidence, not to extradite the latter.

Mr. Patrick Egan has arrived in New York. This will account for his reticence until now, in reference to the charges made against him of having surreptitiously left Dublin for the purpose of eluding police vigilance. Mr. Egan emphatically denies that he has proceeded to America to evade arrest, and says his business is partly of a commercial character, and also to assist Mr. Sheridan, if extradition proceedings be taken.
