

was on account of the present state The Government were reluctant to return under existing circumstances.
 He returned from Dublin by where he had an interview with a tenant. He expected that the the construction of the railway would be next week. The advance of interest with the Irish Government Treasury. He had been endeavouring to get money from the Government at 4 per cent., and he would next week interview with Mr Childers on the subject, and he hoped to be able to prevail on that point that the necessary moneys would be sent to them. That would save the interest of £850 per annum. In any case, he had great confidence that the line would be completed (applause).
 Mr Childers and Mr Greene also returned at the close of the last meeting were then discussed.
 Mr Childers said that their usual hour of meeting was 12.30 o'clock, and some times when more work was to be done, the guardians met at their homes at a very late hour than that in future the hour of meeting should be instead of 12.30.
 Mr Childers had great pleasure in seconding the proposition, which was unanimously

EMIGRATION.
 A long letter was read by the Clerk:—
 "Local Government Board, Dublin, 30th March, 1883.
 With reference to the resolution by the Guardians of Ennis Union, of the 21st inst. directed by the Local Government Board, that one of the members of the Committee will be sent to Ennis Guardians notify to this office that the emigrants under the Emigrants Act of the Arrears of Rent (Ireland) were closed. He will then inspect the same and give all necessary instructions carrying out the provisions of the Act respectively. By Order of the Board, JAMES BRENNAN, Assistant Secretary."

ARRAERS ACT EMIGRATION CLAUSES.
 The Local Government Board wrote a letter on April, 1883, stating that they had received from the Clerk a return giving particulars of the several electoral divisions of the Ennis Union, and that the Board had carefully considered the circumstances of the unscheduled divisions of the Union, and they did not think that it would be justified in recommending that the divisions should be scheduled under the provisions of the act.
