LATE ARCHDEACON OF LIMERICK.

THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

EAR SIR,—All that was mortal of the Venerand most deeply venerated Benjamin Jacob awaits interment in the appropriate resting of St Mary's grand old Cathedral grave ads. His "praise is in all the churches." ined deacon in 1828, and priested in the ving year, he at once entered on a ministerial e, which has had few parallels in fidelity, etion and usefulness throughout the immely past and the present generations. In my boyhood I was extremely struck by his nce as he rose up to speak from the platform he then splendid April meetings in the nda of Dublin. I saw him for the last time rth—reposing in his death-sleep—on Sunday ng, and never throughout my long ex-nce of that "good and faithful servant of ord" have I seen his aspect so nobly serene and like. Of his inimitable

LONDON CATTLE, Monday.—There were about 2,500 beasts ; (6) of which were foreign ; trade was very dull at 4s 4d to 6s 2d. There were about 6,500 sheep and lambs ; trade depressed ; sheep, 5s 1d to 6s 6d ; lambs, 7s 1d to 8s 4d.
 Calves, 5s 10d to 6s 8d. Pigs, 4s 4d to 5s per 8lbs.

LIVERPOOL CATTLE, Monday.—The supply of stock was larger than on the last day. There was a slow demand for cattle, and prices were lower. The demand for sheep was good, and prices were rather dearer. Beef, 7d to 9d ; mutton, 9d to 9½d per ; lambs, 30s to 38s each. Number at market—cattle, 865 ; sheep, 6,032.
