MISCELLANEOUS.

The Earl of Derby, to preside at a banquet to be given to Mr Chamberlain on January 16.

A valuable house belonging to a dentist near Newry has been found dying in its stable with its tail off and other injuries inflicted upon it.

A St Petersburg correspondent alleges that the Russia police believe they have detected intimate relations between the Russian nihilists and "the Irish American terrorist."

The Pope, according to Berlin newspaper, has conferred on Herr von Schleser, the Prussian Minister at the Vatican, the Grand Cordon of the Order of Pius IX, one of the highest decorations in his gift of his Holiness.

The Anchor Line steamer Bolivia after having been temporarily repaired, was successfully floated off the beach in Holy Loch, and went to Glasgow, where the damage she sustained last Saturday will be made good.

The Capt's condition is stated to be much more serious than at first reported, and there is every indication that his Majesty will be confined to his room for a much longer period than was originally believed.

The "Chronicle's" St Petersburg correspondent, the Emperor is reported to be in somewhat greater pain, the inflammation of the ear and shoulder having increased during the past twenty-four hours.

A rumour got circulation and caused a good deal of panic, to the effect that the False Prophet was advancing on Khartoum through the latest telegrams from Cairo, oversight the news, and it is stated that the Mahdi is El Obeid.

Several meetings of friends have been held at Buffalo which are believed to be connected with the same plot. The Russian police believe they have detected intimate relations between those Irish-American terrorists and the nihilists of Russia. A young man named Denton, an auctioneer's assistant, was to have been married in London on Christmas morning, but did not make his appearance at the church, and was soon afterwards found at his lodgings dying in agony from a dose of carbolic acid which he had taken.

During Wednesday's race at Manchester, about six p.m., four horses returning along the canal bank, with their work fall or walked accidentally into the water. A struggle for life ensued, and two young persons, Elizabeth Hardy and James Walker, were drowned.

At a meeting of the Shepherds' Association at Kilkenny, county Kilkenny, the Rev Mr Carroll, a priest, is reported to have used extremely violent language last evening in favour of boycotting and of the breaking up of the grazing farms of Ireland, and regret that recruits should join the Constabulary.

Lord Lytton, in a letter to the Sun Conservative Working Men's Association, says almost everywhere the empire is suffering from reckless and wanton violation of those British principles and interests of which he believes to be essential.
