

...serving in that country. The success which attended their ability and zeal, in stamping out a disease which at one time threatened to reduce the battalions more than actual warfare, has called forth his Royal Highness's special admiration and highest commendation.

The Pall Mall Gazette points out that the Government will find themselves in a very awkward position if they attempt to exclude Ireland from the coming Franchise Bill. They would find themselves confronted by a combination of Conservatives, Irish members, of Conservative Irish members and Radicals, but the fatal weakness of the Government position would arise from the fact that every Minister is pledged up to the teeth to reduce the Irish Franchise.

Announcements of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated), are charged 2s. 6d. each. For every additional line, 6d.
