

OUR CORRESPONDENT.
Cappamore, Wednesday. go the streets of this village were oil and disorder. At about half-Constables Carson and Jeffaries duty, when their attention was which was taking place between ed Butler and Godfrey, who lived ow notorious townland. Both the der the influence of liquor, but not constables advised them to go ey refused, when Carson arrested rey then attacked the constables butt which he had concealed in the coat, and made a violent stroke at Jaries, which he parried. Jeffaries Godfrey, and a severe struggle onsiderable crowd had by this time l the prisoners called on the people m, and not to allow the police to the barracks. Those present then excited, rushed at the constables, and n, so that they were unable to convey to the lock-up. Carson, seeing the of the crowd, and that from the f the people it was probable that the prisoners in custody their lives danger, deemed it prudent to let he constables were then furiously Butler and Godfrey with loading-on ordered Jeffaries to draw his doing the same himself, both con-ed the several strokes made at them ner prisoners, and, closing on them, out of the mob at the point of the s same time warding off their several
 the constables by their coolness and l l may add great forbearance and gh they did not actually use their is, assault their assailants with d them out of the crowd, and into a they succeeded in disarming them, rds conveying them safely to the ere they were placed in the strong evening the prisoners were conveyed ickard E Lloyd, J.P., who took Con-son's information, and discharged ordered Godfrey to find bail, himself two sureties in £15 each, to appear at Petty Sessions, which were held yester-re Mr R E Lloyd (chairman), Mr E B l Mr C B Barrington. Constables Jeffaries were examined, and detailed stances of the riot, as given above. cross-examined by Godfrey, and, in estions, admitted that he did his best trike him with his sword, which he ress too short. The magistrates fined l, and Butler 30s, with costs, or the natives. Some of the justices thought ert had no jurisdiction, and were for e prisoners for trial to a superior Drevas, who started from Dover on ernoon in his miniature paddle boat, ing whose safety there was a good deal sion, was landed at Dover yesterday by a German barque, having been n the North Sea last night in an ex-addition.

W. STAWELL GARNETT'S MARKETS REPORT.
 Liverpool, Oct 23.—Small supplies of both cattle and sheep at Liverpool on Monday met a good demand for best descriptions of each, best beef making a shade over 8d per lb; best sheep 10d; middling and inferior animals were slow of sale. Small pigs scarce and dear heavy animals and sows easier. At Manchester on Tuesday the majority of the cattle shown were rough and inferior, and sold badly, but best descriptions were scarce and dear; sheep 2s per head dearer than last week. Store cattle dear. Hay and straw unchanged.
