We are informed that there is no truth in the report that the Italian Minister of War is organising a force of 20,000 men for the occupation of Tripoli.

Yesterday the neighbourhood of Stackallan, in the county Meath, was the scene of some public excitement. The Meath Hounds met there to hunt, and as his Excellency Earl Spencer was expected to arrive from Dublin by train at Beaufort station a large number of the country folk attended to resent his coming, and prevent him from hunting over the lands. However, his Excellency did not arrive, and the hunt proceeded without molestation.

THE ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP MILLSTREET BARRACKS.—At Millstreet, county Cork, Petty Sessions yesterday, before Messrs M'Carthy, O'Leary, Howard, and Leader, Patrick Leary was charged with on the 20th January, attempting to blow up Millstreet Police Barracks. The accused was remanded, pending instructions from the Attorney-General. It was alleged that on the evening of the day in question the ac-
