

April 28, 1885.

"Mr Knollys is desired by the Prince and Princess of Wales to thank Limerick City and County Magistrates for their loyal address and kind good wishes on the occasion of their Royal Highnesses' visit to Ireland."

FUNERAL OF THE COUNTY HIGH SHERIFF.

The funeral of the late Lieut-Col. George Eyre Massy, County High Sheriff, whose lamented death we announced on Tuesday last, took place on Thursday, being largely attended by all classes. The cortege left Riversdale, at two o'clock; the hearse being followed by numerous carriages and pedestrians. The chief mourners were Mr R. Massy, Kilmore House, Mr H. Massy, brothers of the deceased; Masters Hugh Massy, Eyre Massy, George Massy, and Edward Massy, sons of the deceased, and Sir David Roche, Rev Edward Gabbett, rector of Croom, Mr John Vanderkiste, J.P., and Mr George Robbins, Portarlington, brothers-in-law of the deceased. Amongst those who were present to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of the departed gentleman were, Lord Massy, Mr John Bolton Massy, J.P., Ballywire; Captain Vanderkiste, Capt Massy Dawson, Ballinacourty; Mr James Dawson, Mr F. St. C. Hobson, County Sub-Sheriff; Mr Saunders and Mr Saunders, junr.; Rev Mr Ryan, P.P., Galbally; Mr Charles Conyers, J.P.; Mr O'Grady Conyers, J.P.; Mr Ringrose Drew, Mr Robert Harding, Janeville; Mr Thomas Fosbery, and Mr O'Grady, solicitor. The two Roman Catholic curates of Galbally and a numerous concourse of farmers and tenants residing in the vicinity were present. The interment took place in the burying ground of Duntrileague, the funeral service being read by the Rev R. Cleary, rector of Galbally. Mr P. McCarthy and Sons, George-street, Limerick, were the undertakers.

THE LATE RAGGED SCHOOLS BAZAAR.

Mrs and the Misses D'Esterre thankfully acknowledge contributions for their stall at the Bazaar for the Limerick Ragged Schools from—Mrs Greville, Leeson Park, Dublin; R. Hunt, Esq., W. Beauchamp, Esq., Mrs Kelly, Erinagh, Castleconnell; Miss Laurence, Richmond, Surrey; Dr. Going, Six-mile-bridge; Mrs W. Vanderkiste, H. V. D'Esterre, Esq., C. W. Atkins, Esq., Miss J. Wilson, D. Hall, Esq., Mrs Powlett, P. G. F. Clement, Esq., Mrs Wallnutt, Miss Wallnutt, Miss F. Wallnutt, T. S. Deane, Esq., the Misses D'Esterre, Southampton; Mrs Harvey, Miss Dartnell, W. Hunt, Esq., Miss Alice Hunt, E. Evans, Esq., T. Evans, Esq., Mrs R. Evans, R. Evans, Esq., C. Evans, Esq., Miss Wormleighton, Miss Rodger, The Misses Russell, Catherine-street; Mrs Harvey, Mrs Alexander, Beechlawn; Miss McMahan, Miss May Brady, Oughterard, Co. Galway; Miss O'Brien, Miss Cissie Cox, Miss Alice Plummer, Miss Ada Kinsman, Messrs Todd & Co., McBirney and Co., Copeman, Guy & McQuaide, and Alexander.

Mr John Russell and the Misses Russell, Lemonfield, beg to thank for their kind contributions to their stall for the Ragged School Bazaar, Mrs and Miss Browning, Mrs Webb, Mrs did it ample justice, his pl the selection exceedingly w extremely good, and the m quite up to the mark. The to the lot of Bones, or Hay went to the strains of the mean to do without the which has found favour both great and small. song were laughable, an deserved applause. Amcstitutions Bones expresse doing without were the nigh and the Board of Guardian were heartily endorsed by t Mr Hall, who is following gifted brother, Mr W. J. verses in capital style. came next on the programme "Flag," a bass solo he sang v sion. "Ochone, be good to the next topical song, ren Irish accent by Tambo (Mr superfluous to say that thi acquitted himself admirabl known in Limerick as a cho his wonderful powers of mi possesses a pleasing and tur voice, and the manner in wl called for unlimited mirtk touched on various local seemed to create the most li Mr Ambrose Hall, J.P., who seat in the theatre, was sul lips of his son. An encore responded to. "The Exile" v we knew who the performe nizing his sable visage, for M a fine tenor voice which, wl quickly forgotten. This con too, as was also the nex Nightwatch Brigade," set. "Ballyclough Brigade," wh in a Dublin pantomime r delivered the selection, wh laughable. All the sho nocturnal guardians, as m enumerated, were sung. Whoever wrote the song c for the capital composition roars of laughter. The cho given exceptionally well. "The Bugler," Mr David T rendered in his best styl another topical song "Whe turn," which was an exceec tion of the "Silver Churn" gave it in his usual happ obliged to respond to a voci portion of the programme v with the chorus "Happy course the usual ludicrous contundrums were indulged capital. Part II. introduc song by Messrs W. J. Hal Hall, and D. Tidmarsh, whic loudly re-demanded. Nex rendered by Mr T. Bernarc customary ability which w was again to the fi two items, namely: the

the age of thirty, an a matter of fair play, use of the other sex yet ho have arrived at that t great many legitimate ld be sought out. The ed to place a protective, ibitive duty, on all imported into these re fatally with our own That the Budget pro e will be the general nomists. If war breaks will be enormously ce impossible to provide it revenue of the year. , will be merely provi e wiser at once on the or of the Exchequer to to postpone plans for til it is certain whether war. On the other hand, it is unreasonable to resent year and next cost of preparations ve been spread over a century. It would be ig the credit of the way offending against o arrange for paying off le annuities in a very dinary expenditure now shown a fine mushroom, unces, which was found Mr. John Smith, formerly y Glen, near that town. being found in the open dentedly early period of undant season, which up every indication of.

loair, West Creeves, &c., ates of Faha, Carheeny, the Executors of the late Cartown.

l, Military Road, on Thurs- F. W. M'Carthy, auction- le of upwards of 40 three- hoggets for Mr Fitzjames sold Ballyblake farm, e removed for sale. These the attention of graziers been well put together judgment of the owner. at half-past one o'clock