

kind and follow the advice of Mr Parnell and the Bishops of the Catholic Church. In the district of Kildysart he would undertake to keep the peace himself with the aid of two policemen until after the next election. Having alluded to the speeches recently made by members of the Government and commented on them, he called upon all Irishmen to stand united until they obtained their own Parliament and banished all landlords from the country. The proceedings passed off quietly.

Announcements of Births, Marriages, and Deaths not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated), are charged 2s. 6d. each. For every additional line, 6d.

BIRTHS.

Heard—At Woodstown, the wife of the Rev. Henry J. Heard of a son.
Pollok—October 7, at Ronachan, the Hon. Mrs. Pollok, wife of John Pollok, Esq., of Lismany, of a daughter.
Macnamara—October 7, at Morrison's Hotel, Dublin, the wife of Henry V. M'Namara, of Ennistymon House, Co. Clare, of a daughter.

MARRIAGE.

Digby and Carmichael—Oct. 8, at St. Peter's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Thomas Long, rector of St. Michan's assisted by the Rev. James Anderson Catt, L.L.D., vicar of Whitechurch, Everard Digby, Esq., C.E., second son of William A. Digby, Esq., 47 Wellington place, Clyde road, Dublin, to Lillias Zara, eldest daughter of the Rev. Fredk. F. Carmichael, L.L.D., 10 Sallymount avenue, Leeson Park, Chaplain of the Magdalen, Dublin.

DEATHS.

Tuthill—After a short illness, at 26 Belgrave square, Dublin, Charlotte, aged 2 years, daughter of the late Chas. Langley Tuthill, Ballybegue, Braxee, Co. Limerick.
Butler—Sep. 2, at Rostrevor Wapella, Assinibbia, Canada, Violet Mary (Cissy), dearly-beloved and only daughter of J. J. Butler, in the seventh year of her age.