At the meeting of the Mallow Board of Guardians yesterday a deputation of distressed labourers waited on the board to complain of the want of work. In answer to a question from the chairman, one of the deputation said that all the contractor would give them was 1s 10d a perch for drains seven feet deep. The chairman explained that the board could not interfere with the contractors, whereupon one of the number said that if the board would not do anything for them they would "do as the men in Killarney done." The board seemed to consider this language conveyed an alarming threat, and
