An extraordinary disappearance is reported from Pontypridd. The daughter of a Cardiff auctioneer, named Morisco, was sent to Pontypridd three weeks ago on some business. She arrived at her destination, and was seen on the way back to the station. That is the last that is known of her. She was only fourteen years old, and her fate has hitherto been unascertained.
 At the time of her disappearance the girl had some money in her possession.

STORM IN AMERICA.—A severe storm, with hurricane, has raged along the Pacific slope, west of Rocky Mountains, since Sunday last. It is the severest storm ever known at San Francisco. It reached its height on Wednesday, when the wind blew 82 miles an hour. Houses were unroofed, frail buildings blown down, church steeples destroyed, all telegraph posts pro-trated. cars blown from railway tracks, and the dairy, coach-house, sadd ten cows, fowl houses, an ings.
