

icipated, will be taken to the m, as also to that of Messrs , surveyors, for the supplying n connected with the Trugh warm discussion is likely to uestion. Mr Hall has given ion to move at the coming ouncil shall be immediately into consideration the best g the water supply.

been recently set on foot for a creamery at Peafield, Ballyrs being Mr J. B. Doudal, tlemen from the Manchester A private meeting attended ners residing near Limerick, wn Hall to-day, under the lev Dr Meehan, P.P., to dishe-object of which, it was manufacture butter here on e. The low price of Irish to and it was stated by Mr o per cent of butter which he Cork Market got one l, while a very large propor- in the same market received The question as to the to the proposed factory was veral of those present decided ertaking, and gave in their ement as to the quantity of pply. The meeting shortly ed.

ght unusually severe weather ed in this neighbourhood, the whole of the country. ith a bitter breeze from the panied by beating showers tinued at intervals till the ow commenced to fall heavily was covered to the depth uring the evening snow-ball- n considerably. More snow ight and Monday morning, ture remained very cold dur- sterday, the white pall which stood firm where it was not traffic. Last night a slight not of sufficient severity to streets dangerous this morn- sun which shone out during he early portion of the day ughfares exceedingly sloppy, wy covering disappeared from r its genial influence. More ning, and as the wind has north a hard frost may be ays—The hard weather with visited is having an injurious of produce exports from the nd Scotland and all classes of hipped in much smaller quan- y. This is especially the case at present falls far below the ous to Christmas by all the s. No southern county ships this produce by way of Dub-

The adoption of the rules was then propose by the Dean and seconded by the Archdeacon, and agreed to. The Dean took the opportunity of stating that the formation of the Association in the Diocese was entirely due to the Bishop, who in his visitation charge, on a recent occasion, expressed his desire that such an Institution should be established.

The names of twelve laymen to act with the clergy in conformity with the requirement of rule 8, were then proposed by Canon Wills and seconded by Canon Gregg, and unanimously approved of, and the Bishop pronounced the Benediction, and a very successful meeting terminated.

DEATH OF MR WILLIAM ENRIGHT, OF CASTLECONNELL.

Not merely the local public, but also those numerous visitors who summer after summer frequent the picturesque village of Castleconnell, alike for its splendid fishing and invigorating air, will learn with sincere regret of the death of Mr William Enright, which sad and unlooked-for event took place on Sunday night last. Mr Enright had been for some time suffering from the results of a severe cold, which ultimately settled upon his lungs, and though the best medical advice was obtained, and every care used, all proved unavailing. The name of the esteemed deceased had become almost as familiar as a household word. Together with his famous fishing rod and tackle manufactory, the products of which have found ready customers all over Great Britain, he was also one of the lessees of the celebrated eel weirs near Killaloe, from which were exported to the London, and even to the Parisian, markets almost daily consignments of those splendid silvery eels which are so highly esteemed by epicures. The Shannon Hotel, which was founded by the father of the deceased, and was constantly being added to, has been for years past the summer rendezvous of some of the most noted English and Scotch anglers. In private life, the character of Mr William Enright was unsullied, and he has left behind him a name and reputation, for probity and integrity, possessed by few. The deepest sympathy is universally felt for his sorrowing widow and bereaved family. The funeral, which was a most representative one, and largely attended, took place this afternoon, the interment being in Castleconnell Churchyard.

DISGRACEFUL DEMONSTRATION AT A ROMAN CATHOLIC CHAPEL

A most disgraceful occurrence took place on Sunday at Firies Chapel, County Kerry, which is situated quite close to where the late Mr Curtin lived. The Curtin family, who, since the murderous attack on their house, have been living with some friends, removed to their former home during the past week, and intended, if possible, to reside there once more. It was rumoured that a demonstration would be made against them when they attended Divine Service, and accordingly on Sunday no sooner had they entered the chapel than the large concourse outside commenced booing and jeering in a most

At the usual meeting of the "National" League Hall, on Sunday night, delivered the following report of a meeting of Association held at previous day had ind At that meeting there sent—some live lords, s and a few broken down Of course, that old Spaight, J.P., as usual and hisses). Whenever to Limerick or to Ir always found ready t meeting was, of course, yesterday called on the the National League, could have peace or t was done. That gentle League was under the and assassins and those resolutions denouncing of Home Rule for Ire however, were unneces secret that the policy ment had been altered, been withdrawn, that t had been abandoned, a were once more about land plenty of stick (lat that these 24 consti lords and broken down should take the present their holes (laughter). themselves to be heard for years past, but now of this country being a forth from their barrow pression of the Nat He advised the people t cumstances, and treatt and those of his way o tempt they richly dese showing by their dem had any terrors for the of Ireland were as coercion to-day as t Spencer regime, and the determinedly, and wit This was what he reco that the members o throughout the count with calmness and dete they were sailing on tl to-day something of a c to hang over the count snow outside would me the sun, so sure would pelled and leave the Ir great goal of Nationa cheers). With regard branch censuring of the city branch, ting a resolution House League, the N action was not the rest