

h havoc since its appearance f time. The animals live r being attacked, and breed-away wholesale. Not for a s there been such a stock of for the simple reason that the most saleable stock they re depressed times, and the ose of and make the much

A number of this year's t have been attacked with dy which has, in nearly every l, and beyond doubt some le who looked forward to the meet their demands are in a

POLITICS ON LADIES' FACES.—

7 taken dreadfully to poliey set themselves furiously -Home Rule petitions; in zealots of the Primrose ot be useless to these dames aes from the Spectator—not the present day, but the and Steele. "There is one clares one of these eminent ir "which I would earnestly all my female readers, hope, will have some

In short, it is this, that o bad for the face as party ll-natured cast to the eye, and ness to the look; besides that too strong, and flushes them

I have seen a woman's face s, as she has been talking d, whom she had never seen (as it might be now-a-one); "and indeed never woman that kept her vemonth. I would therefore le readers, as they value their ; alone all disputes of this who bully poor shopkeepers ear these admonitions in mind.

The Glin annual regatta and athletic sports promise to be more than ordinarily successful this year. The committee consists of the following gentlemen:—Knight of Glin, JP; L J Kiggell, JP; M M'Donnell JP; J M Hartnett, JP; Wm
Blennerhasett, Daniel Moloney, JP, Clare; Dr Riordan, John M'Coy, Michael Curry, P W Lowe, Wm Bicknell, and D Curry. Hon Secs—D Fitzjohn Fitzgerald, Stephen Pegum and R C Walsh.
Treasurer—James Pegum.

At Tralee Quarter sessions, yesterday the County Court Judge, Mr O'Connor Morris, referred to the death of Sir Henry Donovan in terms of deep regret. At the petty sessions, Mr Considine, R.M, referred to the same melancholy event, and expressed his great regret, and adjourned the court for a week as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased. The other magistrates presiding also spoke of the sorrow caused by Sir Henry Donovan's demise.

Last night while a little fellow named Patrick Keough was sitting on the wall by the slip at Ball's Bridge, he over-balanced himself and fell into the river. An alarm was at once given and search was made for the child but without avail.
At three o'clock this morning the body was found in the river near Matthew Bridge by the boy's uncle, and conveyed to his home. An inquest was held this afternoon by Mr M. J.
DeCourcy, City Coroner, when a verdict of accidental death was found by the jury.

Limerick has done well this year in respect to the number of successful candidates who have obtained situations as outdoor officers in her Majesty's Customs. At an open competition held on the 21st May no less than eleven places were taken by Limerick candidates, one of whom Mr T J Curtin was first on the list. The following are the names in order of merit of those who passed the Examination:—Messrs T J Curtin, J J O'Shea, E Fox, J Stapleton, M J Quaid, J W
Houston, J H Biernell, P Hunt, J Brisbane, P Garay, & O'Brien.

went outside and three stones went crashing thr oil ignited and set fire assistance of his neigh guised the fire; but dam was done.

Head-Constable Wall drinking in a public hou 7 o'clock, and at 8 o'cloc arrested and taken to Jo he was very violent in l

Prisoner expressed his the damage done.

The Mayor inflicted a damage, and ordered hin tion, in default to go to John Hickey was ch with being drunk.

Pris ner's wife came protection for herself a grounds that prisoner w ing them.

The prisoner made sc his wife and behaved in dock, which called for Bench.

For being drunk, he of 2s 6d and costs, and peace for six months, l sureties of £5 each, or for two months.

Four lads were ch orchard, and dismissed Michael Rielly was ch with committing a s mother, in Arthur's Q ing.

The mother of the p came in drunk on the quarrelsome, and after her on the eye.

Prisoner was commit
The Mayor and Mr
the City Police Court t no business of interest